

Three to Join Summer Brides

DENISE DONMOYER

The engagement of Denise Donmoyer to James R. Huddle was announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Donmoyer of Sheridan drive, Beverly Hills. The bride-elect is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma at Michigan State university. She will graduate in June. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Huddle of Pleasant Ridge, is currently studying at the University of Michigan, where he is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega. An August 29 wedding is planned.

MARYANNA KENNEDY

Mrs. Thomas S. Kennedy of Crown Point, Ind., announces the engagement of her daughter, Maryanna Elizabeth, to James K. Lewis, son of Mrs. James K. Lewis of Half Moon road, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Lewis. Maryanna graduated from St. Mary's academy, South Bend, Ind., and is presently attending Indiana university, where she is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. A graduate of Birmingham high school, James will graduate in June from Indiana university with a BS in marketing. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. A September 3 wedding is planned at St. Mary's church in Crown Point, Ind.

JUDITH ANN ANDERSON

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Anderson, formerly of Franklin, now residing in Shaker Heights, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Richard L. Huber Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Huber of Lyndhurst, Ohio. The bride-elect is a junior at Michigan State university where she is a member of Alpha Phi sorority. Her fiancé attends Colgate university and is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity. The couple will wed in September and will make their home in Hamilton, N. Y., where Mr. Huber will continue his studies at Colgate.

Ann to Gale Morley Fox of Saginaw. Sandwiched between the pre-nuptial activities will be the graduation of the bride-elect's sister, Jane, from Seaholm high school and a trip to Granville, Ohio, to attend the graduation of John T. Hart of Bloomfield Hills from Denison university. The Hunter's Whip on May 14. Mrs. Harry Wesch and daughter Marnie were co-hostesses for this festive occasion attended by some 20 guests. On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Harold Roseberry and Mrs. Clifford Baugh invited 29 friends to a miscellaneous shower for Gail at the spacious "Locust Hill" Roseberry home in Franklin.

MRS. S. TRUMAN Hart of Guilford road, Bloomfield Hills, will be the attractive hostess on June 4 with still another gala affair for Gail . . . this time a linen shower. June 11 is the date for a family party, given for the bride-to-be, by her aunt, Mrs. Harold C. McNaughton of Pleasant Ridge. Not to be overlooked is the groom-elect, for on June 18 Mr. and Mrs. Carman Adams of Fairport will host a dinner party honoring Mr. Fox. Many close friends of the bride-elect's parents will attend and have an opportunity to become better acquainted with Gail's husband-to-be. The final pre-nuptial party being given in Gail's honor will be a luncheon on June 21, with Kathy Flaherty of Pon Valley road, Bloomfield Hills, serving as the lovely hostess.

Piety Hill Chapter DAR Hosts Picnic

Piety Hill chapter, DAR will be hostesses to five other Oakland county chapters at the annual chapters picnic today. The picnic will be at the home of Mrs. Fred Eric C. Pew, Jr., 1362 Kirkway drive, Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. Roy V. Barnes, Michigan State regent, will address the chapters. They are Three Flags, Lathrop, General Richardson, Pontiac, John Crawford, Lake Orion, Colonel Joshua Howard, Dearborn and Ezra Parker, Royal Oak.

'Pick One for Me'

During their recent vacation trip to California, the Richard S. Kelleys enjoyed oranges fresh from the Disneyland hotel trees. As Mr. Kelley reaches for Mrs. Kelley's, their seven-year-old daughter, Joy, waits patiently for more. The Kelleys reside at 2280 Fairway drive, Birmingham.

Volunteers' Tea Slated For Today

Pontiac State hospital will honor its volunteers at a tea today at 2 p.m. in the recreation therapy department of the hospital. Ted A. Panaretos, hospital community relations director and tea chairman, advises that the purpose of the tea is to let the volunteers know how much the patients and staff members appreciate the dedicated service rendered by the volunteers.

WALTER H. Obenauf, M.D., superintendent of the hospital will deliver the welcoming address and the Rev. G. E. Hershey, associate pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Pontiac will be the keynote speaker. His topic will be "Hundreds of Helping Hands". Hospital patients will entertain the volunteers with chorale numbers and piano selections. Patients acting as messengers will also meet and greet the volunteers in the hospital lobby and guide the guests to the program area.

MEMBERS of the volunteer tea planning committee includes Wilham A. Decker, M.D.; Elizabeth Tiley, RN; Mrs. Eleanor McCurry; Dorothy Roe, Grace Clark; Mrs. Hazel Foltz, Ted Stein and Richard Arthaud.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 121 Denbar road? Mr. and Mrs. Fred Collins moved from New York City on April 20. He is employed by General Motors. Organizations are East Master-lotus lodge, Detroit; Recess club, Sigma Delta Chi, Eastern Star and Women's city club. Hobbies include china painting, oil painting and the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford A. Coffey of 4845 Tullamore drive? They moved from Akron, Ohio, on Feb. 18. Mr. Coffey is employed by The Enjay Co., as manager for the Detroit office. They have two children, Christine and Ellen Sue.

Benefit Performance Scheduled for June 9

A benefit performance of St. Dunstan's next show, "Merton of the Movies", will be given June 9 at the Greek theater for the Cranbrook Institute of Science. Curtain time is 9 p.m. Funds raised through this benefit will be used to build exhibits explaining the principles of physics to school children, scientific groups and the general public.

DR. ROBERT T. Hatt, director of the institute, traveled extensively in Europe last year and visited museums of technology to see what they were doing to explain physics to the public. A display of Cranbrook's plans is now on view in the institute lobby. Mrs. James Fox is chairman of the benefit committee. Working with her are Mesdames William Barney, James Beresford, Kingsley H. Brown Jr., James T. Beresford, John Hanchard, William Beresford, Charles Gilbert, Fred Hooven, John Sanders, George Hodges, Burr Sharley Jr., Theron Van Dusen, John Wert and Miss Phoebe Otter. "Merton of the Movies" was written by George Kaufman and Marc Connelly, and will be staged by Jerry McMechan, a veteran actor and director at St. Dunstan's.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Darragh, Mr. & Mrs. Richard T. O'Reilly, Mr. & Mrs. Waldemar H. Adams, Mr. & Mrs. Donald Hutton, Mr. & Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, Mr. & Mrs. John Warner, Mr. & Mrs. Otis Thompson, Mr. & Mrs. Garvin Bawden, Mr. & Mrs. Stephen F. Booth and Mrs. Wesslau Wright.

Search Is On For City's 10 Best Singers

June 3 will be the entry deadline for the annual vocal audition sponsored by the City of Detroit department of parks and recreation and the Detroit federation of musicians local 5, A.F. of M.

The search is on for the city's 10 best amateur singers between the ages of 16 and 20 living within a five-mile radius of Detroit's City Hall. The first place winner will appear as soloist with the Detroit symphony orchestra under Valter Poole's direction. All singers will sing with the Belle Isle concert band during the summer.

AUDITIONS will be June 13, 15, 16, 17 and semi-finals June 22 in the Veterans Memorial building. Finalists will be heard June 27 in Ford auditorium.

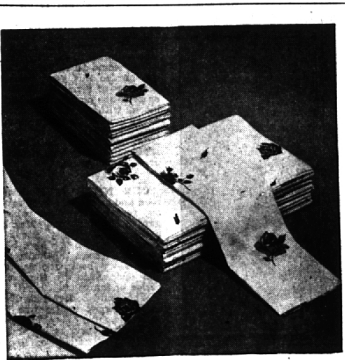

Interested young people may enter by writing to Vocal Auditions, Department of Parks and Recreation, 1806 Water Board Bldg., Detroit 26.

Dining Before Performance

Mr. & Mrs. Jack H. Klarr will entertain at dinner preceding the opening performance of "Merton of the Movies" at St. Dunstan's on Friday, June 3. Mrs. Klarr plays the lead role in the show. Guests include Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis B. McMechan, Mr. & Mrs. Francis T. M. Loud, Mr. & Mrs. Thomas J. King.

STORE HOURS:

Monday thru Saturday
9:30 to 5:30 P.M.

Lady Pepperell

"Bridal Rose" percale sheets

A lovely gift for the bride-to-be or for yourself. . . crisp white percales, strewn with pastel yellow, blue, or pink roses to compliment every decor.

72x108" . . . 4.98 • 81x108" . . . 5.98
42x38 1/2" . . . 1.10

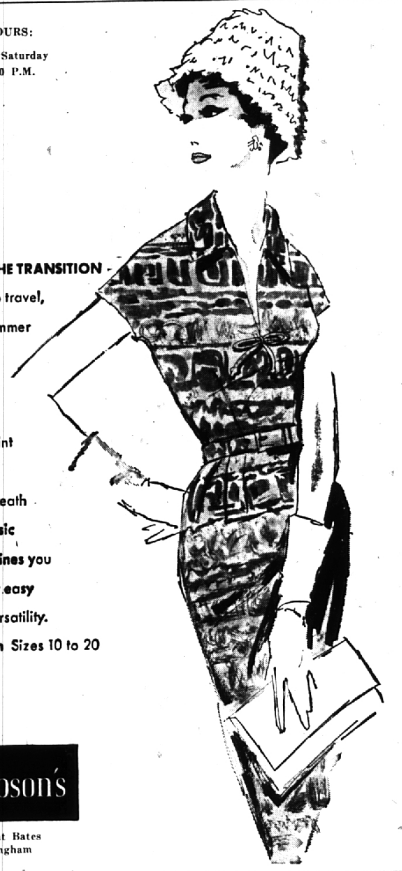

325 N. Woodward
Birmingham

MAKING THE TRANSITION

- from town to travel,
- from midsummer
- to autumn
- our
- batik-look
- byadere print
- colton is a
- versatile sheath
- with the basic
- good slim lines you
- do not on for easy
- daytime versatility.

Wine-green Sizes 10 to 20

25.98

Maple at Bates
Birmingham

Gala Seven Night Dinner Dance Slated

Something to remember over the summer will be the gala seven-night dinner dance and floor shows at the Detroit Athletic Club, beginning tomorrow night. Reservations for this last dance of the spring season are coming in fast. Dances are scheduled for June 3 and 4, and June 7 through 11. The Friday and Saturday night affairs call for black tie attire. A mind-reading act and folk singer are scheduled to appear and area residents with reservations include the Bernard A. Goodes, John C. Kinels, William Spiegels and the Leslie C. Allmans. Also present will be the John Flannery, the Drew Haines and Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Pearse.

New Suburban Club Slates First Meet

Officers for the newly formed Detroit North suburban alumni club of Alpha Gamma Delta will install its officers at the first meeting of the group tonight. The meeting will be at 6:45 p.m. at the Rotunda Inn. Mrs. Carl Biell of Pleasant avenue is the new president; Mrs. L. A. Townsend of Orchard Bend is vice president; Mrs. Arthur Underwood, Jr. of Motegan, secretary; Mrs. Fritz Fieselnmann of Larcoux, treasurer and Mrs. William Westcott of Parkhurst drive, Panhellenic delegate. They are all Birmingham residents. Alpha Gamma Delta was organized at Syracuse university in 1904 and became a member of the National panhellenic conference five years later. It has 95 chapters on college campuses in this country and Canada.

Terry cloth shorts, with three large pockets, give him the casual, soft luxury he loves around home, in the yard; at the beach or club. . . of the finest quality, washable terry with boxer waist; generously cut for cool, relaxing comfort. In solid white or maize; and maroon or blue tattersal on white. s,m,l,xl. 3.98

Maple at Bates
Birmingham

2-Hour Free Parking
When You Make a Purchase
Have Your Ticket Validated
At Jacobson's

Maple at Bates
Birmingham

HANES NO-SEAM NYLONS

show more leg, more beautifully this spring beneath your shorter skirts. Sheer, demi-toe construction. Barely black, moon mist, ivory, caribee, sun pink. 8 1/2-11. Short, medium, and long lengths.

1.65 pair Three pair, 4.75