Newlywed Blackwells To Live in Ypsilanti

Dolores Sally Bovajian became the bride of Richard Allen Blackwell at a double-ring ceremony in St. John's Armenian church Sunday afternoon.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bovajian of Jackson Park drive, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Charles Blackwell of Birmingham street, Huntington Woods. The Rev. Arnak Kasparian officiated.

THE BRIDE chose an organza taffeta gown fashioned with panels of white lace, a bateau neckline edged in pearls and sequins and long pointed sleeves. The princess lines of the gown ended in a full cathedral train.

Her fingertip veil was attached to a lace crown, trimmed in pearls and sequins. She carried orchids and stephanotis over a family bible.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Robert Blackwell, sister-in-law of the groom of Oak Park wore white organza with a lavender taffeta, trimmed in lavender velvet. Her headband was of white organza with lavender velvet accents and her flowers were lavender mums and white irises.

KAREN BOYAJIAN, sister of the bride; Mrs. Raymond Blackwell, sister-in-law of the groom and Sallie Garrett were the bridesmaids. Their gowns matched that of the matron-of-honor.

The flower girl was Norene Sourenian, niece of the bride. Mitchell Lee Topalian was the ring bearer. The groom's twin brother, Bob,
