

Offer Scholarships To Theater School At Cranbrook

Sixteen full-tuition scholarships in Cranbrook's summer theater school have been made available to boys in their senior year in secondary school by the directors of the summer theatre.

Boys must secure the recommendation of their dramatics teacher or of the school principal or boys counselor, and should address their request for an interview to Carl G. Wonnberger, Director, Cranbrook Summer Theatre, Bloomfield Hills.

Candidate's Wife Quits LWV Post

Mrs. Garvin Bawden, Jr., who was recently appointed to the board of the League of Women Voters, has offered her resignation to the board, due to the fact that her husband has filed as a candidate for the Birmingham school board, she announced this week.

Because of his candidacy, Mrs. Bawden, league public affairs chairman, is automatically unable to comply with the league's policy of non-partisanship on the part of its board members. Mrs. Bawden will continue as a league member.

"THIS IS a painful situation for the league," said Mrs. Even S. Hannay, president, when she accepted Mrs. Bawden's resignation. "We very much dislike losing a valued board member, but we are aware that the league must zealously guard its non-partisan character. It is well known that the League never supports or opposes candidates and that positions which the League takes on governmental issues are reached through unbiased and objective membership study and agreement."

"Therefore it is essential that the board, which directs League activities, be so composed that partisan interest can never be imputed to a member of the board," Mrs. Hannay said.

Until a new appointment can be made, Mrs. George N. Hilfinger, first vice-president, will assume Mrs. Bawden's duties.
