Three Agents Attend Confab

Three members of the Birmingham branch of the Prudential Insurance Co.'s Detroit ordinary agency attended the company's 1960 ordinary agencies regional leaders conference at the Broadmoor hotel in Colorado Springs, Colo.

The Birmingham contingent was composed of division manager Floyd T. Pierce, Clair L. Johnson and Noel V. Reed.

These men were invited to attend the business conference on the basis of their outstanding sales accomplishments and service to policyholders in 1959.

They are among 240 leading Prudential representatives from ordinary agencies in Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wisconsin to attend the Colorado Springs conference.

Society Honors Resident Scientist

Dr. Donald C. Cromemeyer, 30775 Rosemond, Birmingham, project physicist in the solid state development department of the Bendix research laboratories, was elected to fellowship in the American physical society, the top U. S. scientific organization in the field of physics.

An authority on the bulk properties of single crystal silicon and germanium, basic materials used in the manufacture of transistors, Dr. Cromemeyer is the author of 112 papers dealing with the electrical and optical properties of semiconductor materials.

Salesman Honored

Frank J. Carlin, 2195 W. Maple, qualified for the Knight in Armor Club, outstanding agents organization of The Travelers Insurance company. He was cited for his outstanding salesmanship at the company's conference at Whiteface, New York, June 8-8.

Firm Gets Account

Carl S. Abbott, president of J. W. Fanner Co., Inc., hydraulic and pneumatic equipment distributors and engineering contractors with headquarters in Detroit, announces the appointment of the John R. Chapman company of Birmingham as their advertising agency.
