

Today's youth are projected into a social order that, compared with a generation or two ago, has lost much of its self-reliance, its dedication to simplicity, to pursuit of spiritual values. Because of this, perhaps critics of today's youth might be a bit more charitable in their judgments of youth. Youth of every generation requires good example in order to improve society.

Check Your Shoes, Join the Natives

Guests will be asked to check their shoes on the sandy beach June 14 when they arrive at the Kingsley Inn for another International party.

A gourmet dinner will be served in the manner of the islands and calypso singers and dancers (group of Jamaican natives) will entertain during the evening.

NATIVE DRESS is suggested for all to further the aura of the night, but if companions, then very casual dress recommended.

Proceeds from the Beachcomber party will benefit St. Elizabeth Home for the Aged in Bloomfield Hills. Funds will be used to furnish the recreational therapy room at the home.

MRS. CHARLES P. Kleinsmith is president of the Briarbank society and members of the planning committee for the party are Mesdames E. E. Fisher, John J. Ellwood and John S. Mahony.

Other members of Briarbank working the cause include Mesdames J. G. Shannon Jr., Alfred D. Fortier, Ann Noble, John Hammond, Ralph L. Polk, Theodore F. MacManus, James Q. Goudie and Fotis Takis.

Parade of Hats Featured at Club

Forest Lake country club ladies and their guests were entertained yesterday at the "mad hatters" party at the club. Party chairman was Mrs. Melville Warner.

Her committee includes Mesdames Howard Schweeppe, Richard Young, William Bibbens, Ralph Hunt, Milo McLintock, Elroy Sandberg, Daniel Packard, Robert Banyan, Martin Hoover, Robert Close. List continues with N. D. Ringard, O. J. Richardson, John Bennett and Kenneth Wagener.

Parties Stated Preceding Tour

Birmingham branch of WNFPA's June house, garden tour and flower show is slated for today from 11 to 6 p.m. Those planning to enter the show are Mesdames H. A. Carr, J. P. McKonkie, W. A. P. John, Sheldon Marston, Walter Anderson, Ralph Zimmerman, Lloyd Lake, James E. Goodman, Harold A. Storch, Bernard Crandell and F. F. Maish.

Mrs. Stuart Gaston and Mrs. G. A. Weinhold will entertain at a party before the tour. Mrs. George Dixon will also entertain a group. Tickets may be obtained on the tour.

Getting in the "barefoot mood" for a beachcomber party slated for June 14 at the Kingsley Inn are (standing from left) C. P. Kleinsmith, Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus and John Mahony. The lovely mermaid is Mrs. Joseph Kleinsmith. St. Elizabeth Home for the Aged will benefit from the calypso party.

Harriet Scott Weds In Greenwich, Conn.

Attired in a floor-length gown of white peau de soie, Harriet Whiteley Scott became the bride of John Allan Taylor Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church in Greenwich, Conn. Dr. John L. Bates performed the 3 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Irwin Scott of Golfview boulevard, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David William Taylor of Easton, Conn.

MRS. JOHN ALLAN TAYLOR with matching hat and white flowers.

THE BRIDE'S gown featured a fitted bodice, sabrina neck line trimmed with applique of tiny white beads, long tapering sleeves fastened with small covered buttons and an extremely full skirt.

A fingertip veil fell from a white peau de soie Juliet cap with tiny white bead applique. A bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley completed the bridal picture.

MRS. CLAYTON A. Murray Jr., sister of the groom, served as matron of honor. She wore a gown of white silk organza over matching tulle designed with a wide hem of turquoise organza and matching flowers on the hemline. She carried a modified Colonial bouquet of carnations and white lilies of the valley. A small coronet of turquoise pearls complimented her outfit.

Robert Taylor of New York City served as best man. Seating the guests were John Kennedy of Myair, Conn. and Clayton Murray, Jr., of Trumbull, Conn.

THE BRIDE'S mother appeared in a simple powder blue cocktail sheath with matching jacket and a small navy blue hat with face veil. Her flowers were violets. Mrs. Taylor selected a rose colored dress.

MRS. JOHN ALLAN TAYLOR with matching hat and white flowers.

Following the ceremony, guests were greeted at the Indian Harbour Yacht club in Greenwich.

THE NEW Mrs. Taylor wore a turquoise and white print silk sheath with matching jacket for her trip to Bermuda. The couple will make their home in Stamford, Conn.

Miss French to Wed

Mrs. Clyde French of Holland street, Birmingham, announces the engagement of her daughter, Joy Christina, to William Clarence Gerber III, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gerber Jr., of Pontiac. Her fiancé is seaman 3rd class in the U.S. navy now stationed in San Diego, Calif. No wedding date has been set.

Convent of the Sacred Heart's 10th Annual Candlelight Ball

Twenty-four girls attired in white floor length gowns will be the center of attraction June 17 when they are escorted by their father to the center of the stage at the Latin Quarter to make their curtsy.

Next Friday will mark the 10th annual Candlelight Ball given by the alumnae of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Bloomfield Hills.

ing the presentation of the graduates to the alumnae. Eight of the girls are daughters of alumnae. They are Mary Ellen Brown, Marcia Fredericks, Constance Gnu, Carolyn Lindeman, Patricia Lyons, Sally Martin, Margaret Sweetney and Denise Taylor. (See BALL, Page 2-C)

Officers of New Suburban Club

Officers of the newly formed Detroit North suburban alumnae club of Alpha Gamma Delta are (from left) Mrs. L. A. Townsend, vice president; Mrs. Arthur J. Underwood, Jr., secretary, and Mrs. Carl Bleib, president, all from the Birmingham area.

Summertime Is Calypso Time

Getting in the "barefoot mood" for a beachcomber party slated for June 14 at the Kingsley Inn are (standing from left) C. P. Kleinsmith, Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus and John Mahony.

Father Daughter Team

Sally Martin, president of the senior class at Convent of the Sacred Heart, Bloomfield Hills, models her floor length white gown which she will be wearing for the 10th annual Candlelight Ball June 17. Mr. Peter Martin of Interlaken road, Orchard Lake, poses with his lovely daughter. Dave Farley and his orchestra will provide the music at the Latin Quarter.

Garden Club Stages June Flower Show

"Arrangements Americana" will be the theme June 13 for the Oakland branch of WNFPA's 15th annual flower show at the home of Mrs. William Wise, 3241 Kerway drive, Bloomfield Hills. The show specializes in artistic arrangements for the home.

General chairman of the show is Mrs. John Merrifield of Huntington Woods. Birmingham judges are Mrs. Lindsey Gray and Mrs. E. S. Walling.

Volunteers Honored at Tea

Birmingham volunteers attending a tea in their honor at the Pontiac State hospital are (from left) Mrs. Dean Coffin, Barbara Oglesby, Mrs. W. E. Slaughter, Mrs. A. T.

Four Teachers Receive Award

Scholarships for advanced summer study have been awarded to four Birmingham teachers by the American association of university women. Gifts to the libraries of Seaham and Bloomfield Hills high school were also announced by Mrs. Lloyd Sturgen, fellowship chairman of AAUW.

Recipients of awards are Mrs. Mary J. Woodworth, Mary Lou Benekes, Katherine Peters and Marilyn Arner. They will be studying towards master's degrees.

THESE GRANTS are possible because of AAUW's successful book sale last fall. This fall's sale, already in the planning stage, will be held in Grinnell's auditorium the last week in October. Many Dewey and Mrs. Lori Boyajian.

Alpha Chi Omegas Set Spring Picnic

Alpha Chi Omegas of Southern Oakland county will have their annual spring picnic Tuesday with dinner at 6:30 p.m. H. P. Halladay will show slides on Alaska and his assistant will be Reed Dewey.

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Geven Batesy Bridge, 8850 Woodland drive, Birmingham. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Bruce Maynard, Mrs. George Bullen, Mrs. Reed Dewey and Mrs. Lori Boyajian.

J. M. Preece Return Home

The Joseph M. Preece has returned to their home on Orchard Ridge road, Bloomfield Hills, after five months in Atlanta, Ga., and Florida. The Preece's grandaughter and grandson, Marion Elizabeth and Robert Sclocum of Rockford, Ill., will spend the summer with them as they did last year. Mr. and Mrs. Preece Jr., will arrive later in the summer with their two younger children.

Golden Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Irvine of Bloomington, Calif., were feted May 28 at the home of their daughter, Mrs. James Browne of Wakefield drive, Birmingham, for their golden anniversary. Fifty guests attended the gala affair. The couple was presented with a wedding bouquet featuring dollar bills in the form of fans with lilies of the valley and roses clustered in the middle.

Birmingham residents attending were the Russell Baginskys, the David Logans, the John Savolas and the J. Hoddes. Besides Mrs. Browne, the Irvines have four other children. Mrs. Kenneth McMann of Bloomfield Hills, Robert Irvine of Royal Oak and two others in California, who were unable to attend.

One gets asked all sorts of ridiculous things these days, what with the census takers lurking about and people panting to give you a trip to Paris, a house and a lot, a job and motorcycle just for answering some silly inquiry about breakfast food or the like. So, things being as they are, it's not unlikely that someone might turn to you at any minute and sharply ask, "What's doing around Birmingham these days?" "Heavenly days," I said to myself, "Someone might not know!" So here goes...

Favorite Recipes for the Ladies

Favorite recipes were sampled Monday at the annual June picnic of the Bloomfield Hills branch of the WNFPA at the home of Mrs. Herman D. Scarney of Pontiac trail, Orchard Lake. The buffet luncheon was served on the lovely terrace, with beautiful Orchard Lake as the background.

Following the gourmet luncheon, Mrs. R. J. Wright of Northville gave an illustrated talk on birds. A world traveler, Mrs. Wright has recently returned from Alaska. Mrs. Lester A. Colman was in charge of the plant sale. These plants were surplus from special treasures from the member's gardens. Mrs. John C. L. Cowen of Bloomcrest drive, Birmingham, was chairman of the day and Mrs. Robert L. Graham of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, was co-chairman.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

Let's Go Country Style

Bright colored skirts and frilly blouses for the ladies and kakis and plaid shirts for the men is the attire chosen for the fall denim dinner dance sponsored by St. Joseph auxiliary to benefit the out-patients' clinic. Committee members will meet today at the home of Mrs. John

R. Davis of Lakecrest drive, Birmingham, to discuss plans for the dance.

Planning to attend the meeting are Mesdames William Beatty, Rocco DiMarco, A. C. Girard, Frank McGinnis, Edward E. Rothman, George Baldwin, Ralph Polk, Sr., Walter Williams, Harwood Bacon, John Maddox, Irvine A. Duffy, and James Q. Goudie.

'Presidents for UCS'

"Madame Presidents" of organizations in this area joined more than 700 other leaders of women's groups from the entire metropolitan Detroit area for a special, community-wide program at the Veterans Memorial building Monday.

Several prominent women from this area who had key responsibilities in the widely-attended event were Mrs. E. J. Anderson of Orchard Ridge, Mrs. Martin L. Butzel of Lone Pine road, Mrs. Lawrence S. King of Endicott, Mrs. Worth Kramer of Ardmore drive, Mrs. Neil C. McMath of Lone Pine road and Mrs. Edward S. Welock of Kirkway road, all of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Don W. Hunter of Carol road represented Franklin.

With the theme, "Presidents for UCS—Platform for '60," the seventh annual Presidents' Day was designed to bring together women leaders so that they could explore ways in which to be mutually helpful to the community.