

She Was Elected To Dormitory Post

DURHAM, N. C.—Miss Mary Gibbs (Gibby) Slater of Birmingham has been elected judicial representative of her dormitory at the Woman's college of Duke university for 1960-61.

A rising Junior, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Slater, 777 Williamsburg, Birmingham, a Dean's List student, she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

To Appear in UM Summer Musical

Sandra Goetz of Reading road, Birmingham will appear in the musical comedy, "Annie Get Your Gun", June 22-25, at the University of Michigan. She is a junior.

"Annie" is the first of five presentations offered by the U of M department of speech this summer. Tickets are available through the department at the Fricke building, Ann Arbor.

UM Honors 'J' Students

Among the outstanding journalism students honored recently at the university of Michigan were three area students.

Jim Catty, graduate student, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Catty, 3824 W. Maple, received the James O'Donnell Bennett scholarship.

Margaret A. Gardner, senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gardner, 592 Madison, received the Bennett scholarship. She is a member of Kappa Tau Alpha, national honorary professional journalism fraternity.

Linda LaMare, junior, daughter of Virgil E. LaMare, 237 Tilbury, assistance from the Glenn MacDonald scholarship fund.

Helps Plan Union At Hillsdale College

Pat Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Berry, of 475 Gleggery, Birmingham, was a member of the committee of twelve which developed and steered to a vote the proposal at Hillsdale college to build a new student union backed by student financing.

Pat, a junior at Hillsdale, was engaged in the two-year project which culminated with students voting to assess themselves $15 per semester per year as an activity fee that would be diverted to a fund for building the union.

AS A RESULT of the committee's work, groundbreaking ceremonies are expected to be held during the Homecoming weekend in the fall, college officials reported.

The new union, to be designed with the services of two nationally prominent experts, will replace the Dickerson union, erected on the campus in 1960 as the first college gymnasium in Michigan.

Two Now Members Of Phi Beta Kappa

Two area students were among the 92 University of Michigan students and alumni initiated recently into Phi Beta Kappa, national academic honorary society.

They were Robert C. Galbreath, 1433 Maryland boulevard, a senior in the college of literature, science and the arts, and Jane M. Lauer of 270 Marblehead, Bloomfield Hills, a senior in the school of education.

A 3.5 at Western Wins Her a Place In a Daisy Chain

Miss Linda Ann Janke, an outstanding freshman student at Western Michigan university, Kalamazoo, was honored at the annual June breakfast, as a member of the Daisy chain.

Qualification for Daisy Chain requires a 3.5 academic average for the first semester of a coed's freshman college year.

Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Janke, 608 Oakland, Birmingham, is studying secondary education.
