

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 1666 Southfield? Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Grutter moved from Rorschach, Switzerland on April 15. He is a machine tool service engineer with C. C. Wilde company, Birmingham. They like to travel and see foreign countries.

Face Peeling
Carolyn Nilson,
Stockholm graduate
Her corrective Cosmetics are
World Famous
772 E. Maple MI 6-7373

Summer Concerts To Start June 14 At Fair Grounds

The annual nine week summer series of concerts by the Detroit Symphony orchestra will begin June 14 in the Music shell at the Michigan State fair grounds. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening programs are planned for 8:15 p.m., a total of 27 programs in all.

The Detroit Edison company, the National Bank of Detroit and the Music performance trust funds of the recording industries in cooperation with the Detroit Federation of Musicians are underwriting the series.

EDUARD WERNER will guest conduct one concert with Valter Poole directing the remainder of the concerts. The winner of the locally sponsored Bendetson Netorg memorial contest for pianists will be presented July 12. The programs will be broadcast in part by WJZ on Tuesdays and by WJR on Thursdays. Over 230,000 attended last summer.

Susan Elizabeth Harris Weds Norman A. Stanton

Susan Elizabeth Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vroman Harris of Owosso was married Friday to Norman Anthony Stanton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Booth Stanton of Birmingham.

The Rev. Father Edward Hofer performed the double ring ceremony at St. Ann's church in Boston before an altar decorated with Madonna lilies and white delphinium.

THE BRIDE chose a short, bouffant gown of chantilly lace over white taffeta with a scalloped neckline. The bateau neckline was outlined by the floral pattern of the lace and long sleeves ended in points over the wrists.

A shoulder length veil French illusion veil was attached to a cap of matching chantilly lace accented with soft flowers. Her cascade bouquet was white phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

MRS. JOSEPH M. Pastore of Portland, Maine, was matron of honor. She wore a beige linen sheath with a matching cummerbund and bodice of beige lace. Rose-printed slippers and a hat of rose petals completed her costume. Her cascade bouquet was pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Garth M. Stanton of Lafayette, Ind., served as best man. Gests were seated by Willard L. Vander Water Jr. of Boston and Robert Cook of Forest Hills, N. Y.

MRS. HARRIS chose an ensemble of periwinkle blue silk with matching accessories and a small circlet style hat of iridescent silk flowers. The groom's mother wore and she wore white cattleya orchids and a pillbox hat of navy velvet and a pillbox hat of navy velvet and a pillbox hat of navy velvet and a pillbox hat of navy velvet.

The couple are honeymooning in Cape Cod and will live in Boston.

MRS. NORMAN A. STANTON

essories. Both mothers wore corsages of cymbidium orchids.

The reception and wedding breakfast were held in the Country room of the Somerset hotel.

THE BRIDE selected a cherry red silk sheath and matching jacket for her traveling costume. The jacket was lined with a tiny white and black print and was accented with a matching scarf. A white matching hat trimmed in black and white flowers completed her outfit.

The couple are honeymooning in Cape Cod and will live in Boston.

YWCA Announces Summer Program

The Oakland branch of the YWCA, at Crooks and Normandy roads, offers a program to appeal to several age groups this summer under the direction of Mary Carroll and staff.

A day camp for girls eight to 13, a supervised playgroup for boys and girls from one to five years, group activities for boys and girls from six to 12, rhythm classes for four and five year olds, and Tuesday ladies day out programs are offered.

A BABY-SITTING and child care class for girls from grades 10 to 12 will assist in caring for children in the ladies day out program.

Day camp is offered in three sessions of two weeks, commencing June 27 and ending Aug. 5, with Tuesdays set aside for supper cook-outs and overnight camping. Various activities and time schedule are available upon request.

A PROGRAM for mothers and children, initiated this summer, will begin June 21 for eight weeks. Tap dancing, ballet, and acrobatics dancing is open Wednesdays to girls from seven to 12. Adult classes in sewing and bridge are scheduled for Wednesday afternoons, beginning June 22 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Evening sewing begins June 22; evening bridge classes begin June 23.

Swimming classes will begin June 23 for eight weeks and are open to children and adults.

REGISTRATIONS ARE BEING taken at the branch on Monday through Friday from 9 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursdays.

'Come As You Are' Meeting Scheduled

The Credit women's breakfast club will meet June 14 instead of the regularly scheduled June 7. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Esther Wisler, 31775 Eastlady drive, Beverly Hills.

This is a "Come as you are—right from work" meeting. On the agenda will include election of officers and the annual examination covering this year's manual.

July Wedding Is Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vandekerck of Redding road, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Jean, to Robert T. Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Hampton of Glenview road, Bloomfield township.

The wedding is planned for July 23 at Holy Name church. A reception at Pine Lake country club will follow the noon ceremony.

The bride-elect is attending Eastern Michigan university at Ypsilanti and formerly attended Marjorie Webster junior college in Washington, D. C.

Her fiance is a student at Peris Institute. He will graduate in June, 1961.

Birmingham Girl Plays in Recital

Two residents of South Oakland county performed in the annual concert recital presented by Evelyn Gurvitch, Detroit pianist, Wednesday at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

They were Donna Palk of Royal Oak and Joann Koren of Birmingham. Others participating were Lynn Gurvitch, Detroit pianist, Wednesday at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Others participating were Steven Ross, Norma Lew, Barbara Stauffer, and Lenore Perlove.

USED ON MILITARY AIRFIELDS an inexpensive coating of Jennite J-16
will keep your BLACK TOP DRIVEWAY good as new.
DO IT YOURSELF!
Phone TRINITY 5-3585 Detroit for details.

THIS WAY TO CAMP HEADQUARTERS

Boy's Sportswear

Shirts . . . . . from $1.98
Polos . . . . . from $1.00
Shirts . . . . . from $1.98
Socks . . . . . from $3.9c

White Stag GIRLSWEAR

TOPPERS
BLOUSES
SHORTS
WALKERS
CLAMDIGGERS

Girls Sox,
Terry Beach Robes

White Stag SWIMSUITS

Sizes 3 to 14 . . . . . from $3.98

Boys' Swim Trunks

Sizes 3 to 10
from $1.19

Alice's wonderland
595 East Maple MI 6-1113
(near Kroger's)

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Harbke To Reside in Ann Arbor

An evening wedding Saturday united Lynne Barker Humphrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Humphrey of Bloomfield Hills to Richard C. Harbke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denver C. Harbke of Wood River, Ill.

The marriage was performed at Kirk in the Hills church with Dr. Harold DeWind officiating.

THE BRIDE was gowned in a white tulle gown with a white tulle and pearl embroidered Sabrina neckline. A fingertip French illusion veil was attached to a matching crown of lace and pearls. She carried Amazon lilies and lily of the valley in a cascade arrangement.

Her maid-of-honor, Linda Harbke, wore white parchment tulle with blue camembert and panels and carried a cascade bouquet of blue and white carnations.

CARLENE Blunt, Constance Metz, Mary Frings, Mrs. Stephen Allans and Mrs. Lee Marbury were the bridesmaids. Their costumes were identical to the honor attendant's.

Stanley C. Humphrey served as best man with Lloyd J. Charlesworth, John J. Feders, Patrick D. Barnes and Norman O. Bandler seating the guests.

A RECEPTION followed at Orchard Lake country club and the couple then left for a wedding trip to Bermuda. They will reside in Ann Arbor.

MRS. RICHARD HARBKE

City, Country School Slates June Carnival

The public is invited to attend the annual Scholarship carnival, sponsored by the parents of the City and country school for gifted children, Bloomfield Hills.

Games, prizes, pony rides and a water ballet are scheduled for the "Western Lamboree" to be held at the school, Woodward just north of Long lake road, June 19, from 1 to 5 p.m.

The carnival raises money for scholarships to assist parents whose children could not otherwise attend the school for gifted children. Students come from the entire metropolitan Detroit area.

Swedish gym exhibitions, the appearance of "Cowboy Colt", puppet shows and a Silver Bar saloon will be some of the attractions as well as a general store and barbequed beef dinners and snacks. Door prizes will include a color TV set, transistor radio, polaroid camera and many other awards.

Republican Club Plans June Meeting

The Bloomfield Hills women's republican club will meet June 19 at the home of its president, Mrs. E. R. Davies of Hammond court, Bloomfield Hills. Farrell Roberts, state representative for the third district of West Bloomfield township, will speak on "The Constitutional Convention."

Mrs. Henry Woolfenden, hospital chairman, and her committee will serve tea and coffee and members are asked to bring box lunches.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hofer of 5788 Birmingham road, Bloomfield Hills? They moved in February from Huntington Woods and have a son Jack, 20 and a daughter Jan, 16. He is an assistant traffic manager with the Missouri Pacific railroad company. He is also a member of the Beece club, the Michigan traffic association, the Detroit traffic club, various other traffic associations and is a mason. The couple belong to the Oakland Hills country club and enjoy golf and bridge.

a summer skort story
in three bright chapters

Time . . . summer; place . . . everywhere the sun shines; characters . . . toddlers, little girls, big girls; plot . . . a young vacationer's action, covering a whole season of free, sun-loving fun. See our complete series of this care-free tale in drip-dry cotton pastel checks or stripes, starting with 2-4 and 3-6x sizes. 3.00 Closing with 7-14 sizes. 3.98

Jacobson's
CHILDREN'S SHOPS
Willets at Woodward Birmingham

2-Hour Free Parking
When You Make a Purchase
Have Your Ticket Validated
At Jacobson's

PLUM BEAUTIFUL OUR PLAID PRETEEN COORDINATES

of carefree dacron polyester and cotton... a rich madras-type plume cotton plaid that keeps its crisp, cool composure through vacation days... goes on into autumn with season-spanning ease. Preteen sizes 6 to 14.

Drop McMullen cowl neck, drop shoulder pop top. 5.98
Jamaica shorts. 5.98
Knife pleat skirt. 7.98
Slim skirt, not shown. 5.98

Jacobson's
CHILDREN'S SHOPS
Willets at Woodward Birmingham

MRS. THOMAS M. BADER

Miss Pillon Marries T. M. Bader

A double-ring wedding united Carol Ann Pillon and Lt. (jg) Thomas M. Bader Saturday at the United States Coast guard chapel, New London, Conn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin S. Pillon of Birmingham and the groom's parents are Mrs. J. E. Nolan of Los Angeles and the late E. L. Bader, Father Edward L. Bader, of Toronto, Canada, brother of the groom, performed the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Evelyn May Pillon attended her sister and the groom's brother, William Bader, of Princeton, N. J., served as best man.

Following a reception at the officers' club at the submarine base, Groton, Conn., the couple left for a honeymoon at Bar Harbor, Me. They will reside in New London.

President Named

Mrs. Arthur Erickson of Kenton road, Birmingham was installed as president of the Soroptimist club of Royal Oak on Monday. The dinner meeting and installation of new officers was held at Kotanda Inn.