Lathrup school playground prob-lmoward Hoverth, retiring Lath-HOVER president urged the board to remove slag from the blayground, stating it causes in-juries to children.

Mrs. John Bodnar commented that a panic feeling among par-ents is developing against personnel cutbacks. The FTA council presi-dent advised improved communi-cations with the public.

BOARD members pointed out that 18 new teachers had been hired and that cutbacks were lim-ted to the elementary physical education and instrumental music departments, involving only three leachers not hired.
