

Honors Are Doubled

FRANKLIN—Double the pleasure, double the fun—13-year-old identical twins, Howard and Harold Hendricks, became "double Eagle scouts" Monday night. The sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hendricks, 6250 Darramont court, West Bloomfield were honored at court of award ceremonies held by Franklin troop B-11. Earning 21 identical merit badges, the Eaglets were pinned by their mother (an identical twin, also) and their grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Hendricks of Cincinnati. Singularly proud, their father presented them with identical scout rings. Older brother Charles was unable to attend—he's also an Eagle scout. Howard and Harold are the third and fourth to attain Eagle rank in troop B-11. They are eighth grade students at Groves high.

3 GOP Candidates In Senate Race Speak in Franklin

FRANKLIN—Platforms and issues of the current tax problems, school problems and the Con-Coa were the topics of discussion when three prominent senatorial candidates spoke Wednesday to the Beverly-Franklin Republican women's club.

DAVE CALHOUN, mayor of Huntington Woods, Farrell Roberts, incumbent assemblyman and Dick Kuhn, Pontiac attorney, spoke out in favor or disfavor of the local issues confronting the citizens of Oakland county.

MRS. A. W. BOHNE, 32720 Brandingham, Franklin, was the hostess to the Republican group.

Mrs. Marvin Marsh, the program chairman, introduced the speakers and channeled the questions.

Groundbreaking Date Tentatively Set

FRANKLIN—A full calendar for the month of June was announced by the Franklin Community association at its membership dinner meeting last Thursday. Plans to break ground for the new community center were tentatively set for June 11 or June 13 at 9 a.m.

A STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL on the village green, complete with a band concert by the Franklin Band under the direction of Dr. Conrad Lam, will be held June 21 at 6:30 p.m.

This weekend, the association is sponsoring the Franklin Village Players production of "The Third Best Sport", a three act comedy presented as a theatre-in-the-round tent show the evenings of June 9, 10 and 11 at 8:30.

Dog Owners To Be Fined For Rovers

WOOD CREEK FARMS—Residents will soon receive a letter from the village council reminding them of an ordinance prohibiting dogs to run loose. Numerous complaints focused on the increasing nuisance of roving Rovers. President Alger Clark said the situation warranted council action and people allowing dogs to run at large were violating the law and subject to $100 fines or 90 days imprisonment.

THE COUNCIL also heard the report of zoning inspector Harry Lang, Jr., on the recent successful spruce-up campaign. Lang said there were illegal political signs, a chain link fence without a permit, debris accumulations, and incomplete construction work which would be brought to the attention of officers before further council action.

Councilman Mrs. Marion Lam was authorized to purchase replacement street signs. The Wood

Village Green Is Spot For 'Third Best Sport'

FRANKLIN—Another opening. Another show—under the big top, on the village green, starts tonight to run for three nights for the benefit of the Franklin Community association. Promising to be one of the most polished performances ever offered by the Franklin Village Players, "The Third Best Sport", a three-act comedy buffooning the great American institute of conventioning, opens as the summer play for local theatre goers. Directed by John Baker, the play features a lot of new faces and several players who have not been seen for a long time.

In his first dramatic role Earl Hamsey handles the lead part with finesse. Mrs. Robert Hampson plays his bride, learning there's an art to combining business with pleasure.

Other newcomers are Harold Rowe, Pete Levitte and Harold Gieger. They are supported by the experienced talent of Mrs. Marion Bates, Mrs. Marion Baker, Ray Adams, Dick Probst, Mrs. Mona Hill and Emil Bates.

Details of the in-the-round production have been handled by Mrs. Nell Price while Mrs. Mary Adams assists the director. Tickets are available from members of the Franklin Community association and Mrs. Elsie Garwood, Mrs. Faye Hawk or Len Madge.

group starting at 7:30 and the other at 8:30. Mrs. Wright's pupils will have an assembly for their families on June 12. Plans call for an outdoor garden event, weather permitting.

Every kinsin' cousin of the Kenneth Bristolos and a great many friends too, converged at the Norman Curran home Sunday to surprise and honor the couple on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. Daughter Gayle had a big hand in planning the party for her parents.

The Kenneth Baileys of S. Greenbriar will be hosting a picnic dinner next Saturday honoring the Sunday school teachers of the Franklin church and the commission on education.

The Phil Van Dykes celebrated two-fold Sunday with 30 guests at their home on Franklin road. Son Doug graduated from Salesian their home on Franklin road. Son attend Western this fall) and daughter Janice graduated from grade school—what better reason? Doug will be leaving shortly for a pack trip to California, an experience which is bound to make good copy in a later issue.

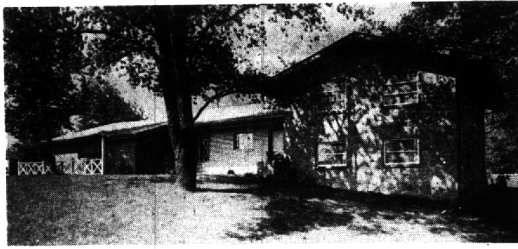

From here on in, there'll be pool side parties at the Nicholas Quints on Colony Hill. Last week they entertained ten couples who brought a pot-lock supper and bathing suits—for the children. Last week there were more, but again only the young dunked. And from where we sit, it looks as though the Quints will be busy each weekend.

The Richard Caskeys of Apple Tree lane have returned from a five-day holiday in New York. June 16 is graduation day for Mrs. Stephen Gidley of Seenic. She has completed her college education, started five years ago, and will get her diploma from Wayne State university just like all the sweet girl grads. Her husband and 13-year-old daughter, Mary, will be the proudest and happiest of all.
