Firm Imports Trailer For Training

To make sure everyone in their newly appointed advertising agency was acquainted with the product, F. A. McAllum, president of Detroit Mobile Homes manufacturing, Inc., had a deluxe 55' by 100' two-bedroom trailer brought from the factory in St. Louis, Michigan to the agency's headquarters in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. Nearly 300 MacManus, John & Adams' people inspected it including (l. to r.), Fred J. Hatch, senior vice president and group supervisor on the account, Ernest A. Jones, president, and Darrell C. Roberts, administrative vice president of the agency.

Hayward Made Plant Manager

E. C. Klotzburger, 1090 N. Glenhurst, vice president of General Motors and general manager of Fisher Body division announced the appointment of Earl Hayward, 1831 Hillcrest, Beverly Hills, Beverly Hills, California, to manager of the Willow Run Co. air body plant. Hayward was production manager of the Fisher Body-Fleetwood plant in Detroit since 1955.

Moyer Plans Retirement

The retirement of Carl W. Moyer, 3710 Brookside, Bloomfield Hills, after 25 years with General Motors was announced by Fisher Body Division. Moyer, general factory manager of Fisher Body assembly plants in the Eastern United States, first joined the General Motors division in 1925 as a cost clerk in Detroit. He has elected to retire next July 1 under provisions of the General Motors retirement program. Moyer plans to pursue his interest in travel.

Resident Returns From Conference

James P. Lowman, 521 Ridge-dale, agency member of the Equitable Life Assurance Society returned from Denver where he attended the company's national spring conference at the Hilton Hotel.
