THE GARDENER'S CORNER

The Answers to Your Gardening Questions by Bob

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: Is there any one time of day that is best for watering roses?

BOB'S ANSWER: Although early evening is usually the best watering time for most plants, it is sometimes wise to water roses in the morning. This is because certain varieties of roses are subject to mildew and should not be watered at night, especially in warm weather.

THE BILLBOARD

BLOOMING HILLS HIGH

By Sue Hallas

They DID Learn

EDITOR'S NOTE: For more than a year Mike Zweig has written the Billboard for BHHS. "Now I am graduating, and Sue Hallas, who will be a senior next year, will be doing the work," Mike said. We all hope that she will transfer her ability to the column, and we wish her all the best things. The remainder of this column, and all of the ensuing, will be from her pen.

This column has often been filled with various school activities. This time it will be devoted to two scholastic honors assemblies, which reflected the believe-it-or-not purpose of going to school; learning. The people involved, especially seniors, have worked hard and well and justly deserve the credit they were given.

Among those honored at the annual scholastic honors assembly were the Library Workers, the All League choir, the Hills, and last year's Student council officers. Awards were given by the speech and Spanish departments and for debate.

Rev. Halfour, valedictorian, received the Haush and Lombe Honorary Science award for her above-average grades in all three science courses.

The math award, for all A's in all high school math courses went to Andy Snively and Lynn Marshall, salutatorian.

The outstanding student award (and a standing ovation) went to Dan Riley.

A Financial Point

A joint effort of all clubs at BHHS raised $750 for the school in one day. The students earned the money through a bottle-rand and a car-wash. This, obviously, exceeds the $20 reported by the Birmingham Eccentric last week.

There were several scholarships and honorary awards. Sharon Newman received the Wells college award. Jim Gerhard was presented with a Chisholm foundation and an Amherst college scholarship.

A Trustee scholarship to M.S.U. went to Linda Mitchell, and Renie Sinclair was given a President's scholarship citation from M.S.U. Rick Clark received the U. of M. Regents alumnae scholarship, and Bruce Geyman was given a Birmingham U. of M. Alumnae club scholarship.

A Certificate of merit from the Michigan Actuarial society went to Andy Snively.
