Newlywed Scovilles To Live in Kalamazoo

Bonnie Bramblett and Phil Robert Scoville were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Bramblett of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills. Dr. Homer Armstrong, pastor at First Baptist church in Birmingham, performed the 6 o'clock ceremony.

The bride appeared in a bouquet train and a portrait neckline. A full draped carriage back. She carried a cascade of white roses. A headpiece of French orange blossoms secured her shoulder length veil of French illusion.

JULIE BECHER of Westwood road, Birmingham, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Ann Bramblett of Smyrna, Ga., and Linda Garrison of Marietta, Ga. Maid of honor wore a bell-shaped dress of Cochen blue silk organza with a Dior bow of matching organza. Attendants wore pink imported batiste trimmed in lace with lace cummerbunds. They all had nosegays of pink miniature roses.

PHIL, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Scoville of Hillsdale, Mich., asked his brother, Gary, to be best man. The bride's brother, William Robert Bramblett served as an usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bramblett chose a sheath with a green linen skirt and bodice of green and blue print trimmed with sequins. Mother of the groom selected a sheath of polished cotton in shades of green, blue and purple. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids.
