

Wedding Bells Ring for June Belles

See Stories Below

MRS. ANGUS G. GOETZ JR.
(Alma Monaghan)

MRS. DAVID F. MYERS
(Martha P. Mehrer)

MRS. EDGAR A. GUEST III
(Pamela Ann Maul)

MRS. CHARLES A. BINGHAM
(Beverly Arnold)

MRS. BROOKS MARSHALL JR.
(Michele Tait)

MRS. BURTON ERICKSON JR.
(Nancy Carl Rice)

MRS. JOHN F. BURTON JR.
(Janet McKnight)

June Busy Month for Vows and Veils

A. G. Goetz Jr., A. Monaghan

St. Hugo of the Hills church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Alma Jean Monaghan to Angus Gerald Goetz, Jr. The Rev. Francis Stack performed the 12:30 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Monaghan of Cranbrook road, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of Dr. Angus G. Goetz of Grosse Pointe Farms and the late Mrs. Goetz.

THE BRIDE appeared in a blush pink silk organza gown with chantilly lace. A chantilly lace crown secured her elbow length veil of illusion. Her bouquet consisted of miniature pink roses with matching lilies of the valley.

Maid of honor was Patricia Monaghan and bridesmaids were Jacqueline Cochrane, Kathleen Powell, Mary Power, Anne Monaghan, Rosalie Lake and Christine Archangeli.

THEY WORE short blush pink organza dresses with pink embroidered flowers on the bodice. Crown of pink roses secured their short head veils. Colonial bouquets of pink roses completed their outfits.

Best man was Daniel Childs and ushers were Peter Connolly, John Stroh, Jr., William Fisher II, Walter Fisher, Peter Monaghan, Jr., Philip Monaghan Jr., Michael Bassford, Edward Spencer and Louis Fisher.

FOLLOWING the ceremony, guests were greeted at Bloomfield Hills country club. The bride's mother wore a brown lace dress with three quarter length sleeves and matching accessories.

The new Mrs. Goetz's going-away costume was a beige Italian silk suit with matching accessories. They will drive to Sea Island for a few days and then to Nassau. The newlyweds will reside in Grosse Pointe.

David Myers Martha Mehrer

Martha Price Mehrer and David Fredric Myers were united in marriage Saturday evening at Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Robert L. Dewitt officiated at the 6:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold George Mehrer of Yarbrough road, Bloomfield Hills, wore a princess line gown of ivory, tan peau de soie in ivory, fashioned with a beaded neckline, cap sleeves and a bell-shaped skirt with back yoke and skirt of re-embroidered lace appliqued with seed pearls which fell into a chapel train.

HER FINGER TIP veil of ivory illusion was secured by a cap of silk rosebuds. She carried orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. William B. James served as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Jane Underhill, Joan Lang, Alison Myers and Mrs. Jack Beattie.

The bride's attendants wore silk organza dresses over taffeta featuring scoop necklines with drapes which extended down the side of the bell-shaped skirts. Matching bows secured their circular veils.

THE GROOM, son of Mrs. Sumner B. Myers of Ann Arbor, asked

Vincent Wall to be best man. Ushers were Harry Barrett, Dana Larson, William James and Harrington Mason.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mehrer chose a champagne lace dress with a green cymbidium orchid. The groom's mother selected a green chiffon dress with a brown cymbidium orchid.

THE NEWLYWEDS are honeymooning in Pompano Beach, Fla.

E. A. Guest III, Pamela Maul

Given in marriage by her father, Pamela Ann Maul became the bride of Edgar A. Guest III, Saturday morning at the Townley Presbyterian Church in Union, N. J. The Rev. Dwight E. Faust performed the 11 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Maul of Union, N. J. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Guest, Jr., of Bingham lane, Birmingham.

IMMEDIATELY following the ceremony, guests were greeted at the Suburban Golf club in Union. Judith Miles attended the bride as maid of honor and Ellen Guest, sister of the groom, was maid of honor.

Best man was David Rodgers and ushers were Charles C. Andrews, Kimball Maul, Howard T. Howlett and Robert Leech.

THE BRIDE attended Denison university in Granville, Ohio, where she was affiliated with Kappa Theta sorority. Her husband graduated from Denison Country Day school and Denison university with a bachelor of fine arts degree. He was member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity at Denison.

Edgar is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Guest of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander R. Maynard of Detroit.

David Myers C. A. Bingham, B. G. Arnold

Beverly Grace Arnold and Charles A. Bingham were united in marriage Saturday morning at Holy Name church in Birmingham. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Arnold of Palmyra drive, Bloomfield Hills, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carson C. Bingham of Bingham road, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE appeared in a Mallet original of muted silk organza with a scoop neckline edged with pearl and crystal encrusted alençon lace with a bell skirt falling into a chapel train. The skirt was trimmed with lace motifs in the shape of wedding bells.

A Swedish crown secured her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a prayer book covered with lace and a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis, pale pink sweetheart roses and ivy.

THE BRIDE'S attendants were Ann Umphrey, maid of honor; Nancy Bingham, Jane Foster, Diana Richardson, Fatti Mundy and Grace Daly was flower girl.

They wore dresses of pale pink silk organza in princess style with delicate clusters of roses of the same material on the skirt and metal pink headbands.

They carried rubrum lilies and pink roses. The flower girl wore a dress of pale pink silk organza and carried a feathered bird cage.

DAVID C. Bingham stood as best man and seating the guests were John Hill, Bert Hadas, Hugh Terrill Arnold, Paul Teranes and Wayne Boyage.

Reception and breakfast were held at Oakland Hills country club.

The bride chose a silk champagne dress with matching accessories for her going-away costume. They will spend two days in New York City and then fly to Bermuda for 10 days.

MOTHER of the bride wore a pink sheath alençon lace dress with a cummerbund of delicate shades of pink silk chiffon and a side drap of the same material, long pink kid gloves and a pink cymbidium orchid pinned to her clutch purse.

Bridegroom's mother wore a dress of Italian silk in a pink shade and carried green orchids.

B. Marshal, Michele Tait

Birmingham Unitarian church was the scene June 19 for the marriage of Michele Tait to Brooks Marshall Jr. A reception immediately followed the ceremony at Orchard Lake country club.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. James E. MacLaine of Malibu, Calif., and the Brooks Marshalls of Gordon lane, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE wore a full length white organza dress with cap sleeves, round collar, crushed cummerbund and full skirt. White daisies were scattered over the entire dress and slight train.

A seed pearl crown secured her short veil and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, white roses and white daisies.

Betsy Marshall was maid of honor and bridesmaid was Jo Burr Frederickson. They wore shell pink sheaths with short sleeves and high necklines. They carried cascades of white carnations and ivy with pink baby roses trailing down the center of each bouquet.

MOTHER of the bride wore a grey linen sheath with pale pink accessories and a cloche of pink and rose chiffon flowers. The groom's mother selected a natural linen sheath embroidered with sprays of mimosa and matching accessories.

Best man was David Schutte and ushers were Douglas Lewis and Walter Herdrich.

John Burton, J.H. McKnight

The Martha - Mary Chapel in Greenfield Village, Dearborn, was the scene of the wedding of Janet H. McKnight to John F. Burton Jr. The couple was united in a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon by Dr. Raymond L. Hightower of Kalamazoo.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McKnight of Puritan street, Birmingham. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burton of Massillon, Ohio.

THE BRIDE wore a ballerina length gown of silk peau de soie with re-embroidered alençon lace dotted in seed pearls edging the neckline and the skirt, appliqued with alençon lace was fashioned in modified fullness.

The elbow length illusion veil was held in place by a band of matching lace dotted with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of stephanotis and lilies of the valley, centered with cymbidium orchids.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Carol McKnight, was maid of honor and the groom's sister, Sue Burton, served as bridesmaid. Both girls were attired in dresses of white silk organza with bodices embroidered in pale pink roses.

They wore headpieces and shoes of moss green satin matching the dress belt. They carried cascades of ivy and pink sweetheart roses.

JOHN KERBER served as best man and ushers were David H. Shaffer and Harold D. Germer.

Mrs. McKnight chose a sheath gown of aqua print silk with matching accessories. She pinned a corsage of white cymbidium orchids to her clutch bag. Mother of the groom was attired in a gown of blue chantilly lace over taffeta with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

A RECEPTION for the immediate families followed at the Dearborn Inn. For her wedding trip, the bride changed into a beige silk suit with matching accessories. The newlyweds will reside in Ann Arbor.

Dr. J. Dinan, M. M. Guinane

St. Pauls on the Lake in Grosse Pointe was the scene June 15 for the wedding of Marguerite Mary Guinane to Dr. John T. Dinan Jr. The Rev. Francis Stack performed the 11 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dennis F. Guinane of Grosse Pointe, and the late Mr. Guinane. The groom is the son of John T. Dinan of Guilford road, Bloomfield Hills, and the late Mrs. Dinan.

FOR HER wedding, Marguerite chose a gown of Dresden silk peau de soie designed with a scoop neckline and three quarter length sleeves appliqued with Battenburg lace. A cascade of cream colored roses completed the bridal party.

Attendants were Martha Artz, Mrs. George L. DeVos Jr., and Nancy Fuller. They wore dior blue silk shantung with scoop necklines and three quarter length sleeves. They carried old fashion nosegays of pink rosebuds.

DENNIS ALLEN Dinan stood as best man and escorting the guests were Dr. Roy T. Haskin, Charles G. Koella, Veremish Bourke, Darwin Braden and Dr. H. Randall Deming.

Reception was at the Lochmoor club immediately following the wedding.

Mother of the bride appeared in a beige chiffon and lace dress with cymbidium orchids.

THE BRIDE selected a gray silk shantung suit with matching accessories for her wedding trip to Northern Michigan.

The couple will live in Portland, Maine, where Dr. Dinan will be associated with the Maine Medical Center.

(More WEDDINGS on Page 2-B)

MRS. JOHN DINAN JR.
(Marguerite Guinane)

MRS. WALTER TAYLOR
(Mary Louise Wilson)

MRS. ROBERT L. NUNN
(Elizabeth Buckner)