trip June 28 with last place Boston. When asked if more from the fans bothers the players on the field, Neil said, "you soon learn to block it from your mind." "At first, I use to get nervous and upset," he said, "but after a while it becomes pretty routine." However, he added, the players on the bench get just as much involved in the game's action as do the fans in the stands.

"THE BIGGER the crowd, the better you play," said Neil. Although players give the game as much as they've got, they are more enthused about a game played before a big crowd. "It just seems to bring everybody on the team and makes the game more exciting for the players," he said.

Before the two oldest boys started school, Mrs. Chrisley frequently attended ball games and accompanied Neil in spring training. "All of us enjoyed the traveling," she said, "but time no longer permits both full-time jobs."

An Explanation At Dandelion Time

Sure, dandelions are pretty. Just as pretty as daisies, maybe. But Mom doesn't plant daisies in the lawn, does she? Wait till you see what BONUS® does. Besides getting rid of dandelions and similar weeds, it makes the grass greener—at the same time. Nothing looks as nice as a thick, green lawn, now does it?
