The "good guys" don't always wear white hats!

In real life, it's not as easy to identify the "good guy" as it is in TV westerns. Many of today's heroes accomplish their good deeds without a white hat, a white horse, or a marshal's badge. Your Prudential Agent, for example . . .

Last week in Nebraska, he delivered a Prudential check which rescued a widow from financial distress, permitting her family to keep the home they love.

In Michigan a PRUDENTIAL agent outflanked possible trouble by suggesting a Partnership Insurance Plan. In case of a partner's death, money will be available to settle the estate and keep the business intact.

In Wisconsin, another PRUDENTIAL agent helped a young husband protect his income should he be unable to work because of sickness or injury.

And in South Dakota, he showed a young father a plan to guarantee the money to send his boy to college when the time comes.

When your PRUDENTIAL agent rings your bell, welcome him . . . You'll find him a "good guy" to do business with.
