On Caribbean Cruise

Dr. and Mrs. Peter J. Moorton of Kinross road, Birmingham, sailed from New Orleans aboard the Alocia Steamship company liner, MY Bow Plate for a 25-day cruise in the Caribbean. During the voyage they will visit Kingston, Jamaica; Willemstad, Curacao; Bridgetown, Barbados; Port of Spain, Trinidad; Maracaibo and Guirira, Venezuela. Before sailing they spent three days in New Orleans. Dr. Moorton is a physician-surgeon, osteopath in Birmingham.

SUBURBAN SCENE

for Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morse, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Scott and Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Doerr.

MANY OF THE members have planned dinner parties preceding the party. Mrs. Robert Harvie, president of the alumnae club, has asked the William Burgums, Art Lake, A. Brookman and J. Allmans. At the G. T. Christensens' home, the Dean Beiers, Fred Adams, R. Straight, R. Seiler and D. Corgills will be guests.
Invited to the E. J. Quokombush's home are Mr and Mrs. Sidney Smith, J. Donalds and R. Backstrom. The red carpet will be rolled out at the Don Voelkers home and their guest lists include the J. Wilsons, V. LaMarres, William Press, William Bullocks, William Spinnings, C. Johnsons, E. Olsons, Bill Michaels, J. Rowlands, and Dr. and Mrs. R. Fox.

FIVE COUPLES invited to the Frederick Crockett's home are the D. Adairs, Jim Grissoms, F. Milburns, J. Heaths and the W. B. Murphys. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Conn have asked their guests to meet them at Roma Inn for dinner. Included are the J. Cheneys, J. Coulters, F. Fehrs, William Kisers, Robert Coles and R. Stolberges.
At the same time curling is going on, there will be ice skating for those hardy souls and for the less adventurous there will be bridge on the balcony. During the evening cake and coffee will be served.

Have 'Picnic, Snow or No

Final arrangements for a "Winter Picnic" for Tri-Delta and their husbands were made February 29, when Birmingham alumnae met for lunch at the home of Mrs. John A. Berrer of Lathrop. Mrs. Robert McMillan assisted the hostess.
The "Winter Picnic", March 5, will in reality, be a cocktail party and buffet supper, but with a casual atmosphere to attract the husbands.
Guests have been invited at 6:30 p.m. to the Riverside drive home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth N. Ryden.
The chairman of arrangements is Mrs. H. O. Mellen, and co-chairman is Mrs. James Gullberg. Others on the committee are Mrs. Norman W. Diederich, Mrs. William McConnell, and Mrs. Richard E. Diederichs.

This year, wear a "custom-made" For the EASTER PARADE
There's been a lot said about the bonnets and dresses that are seen on Easter morning; But how about the suits that escorts wear?
This year, they'll be the handsomest they've been in years, especially if they're tailored by Paul!
And now's the time to order yours, so that it will be ready in plenty of time for Easter (April 17th).
Which do you prefer? ...
"Midlands Olive" or "Mist Green", the fabulous new fabrics from Howard-Hardy, Ltd., of London. You should see these new colors in mohair before you buy any suit.
"Moor Brown" or "Fog Grey" in woolsens and silk combinations.
These fabrics will be exactly tailored by PAUL into suits beginning at $125.00. Or, if you prefer, you can order a "Made to measure" suit for only $85.00.
Now is the time. An hour (or less) at PAUL'S will be the best way to start the Easter Parade.
PAUL Custom Tailor
(Tailor to 196 of the best-dressed, and thriftiest, men in Birmingham and Bloomfield.)
