Chicago Artist Presents Show at Kingswood School

Using a variety of painting and drawing techniques, Sigmond Purwin has created a colorful show at Kingswood school Cranbrook. The exhibition of works by this Chicago artist will be on view to the public until March 16.

Included in the exhibit are several watercolors of sportscar racing, with scenes from major racing events of the world. Another series shows jazz musicians drawn in various ink techniques. Landscapes, circus scenes and animals add to the variety of subjects.

Visiting hours are Mondays through Fridays, 4:15 to 5:30 p.m.; Saturdays, 2 to 4:45 p.m.; closed Saturdays, Clifford West, head of Kingswood's art department, has announced that several of the paintings are for sale.

A resident of Evanston, Ill., Purwin is vice president and director of display at Robert Snyder associates of Chicago. He received his art education at the Cleveland Institute of Art and the Chicago Institute of Design.

PATRICIA ANN MASSEY

Patricia Massey, James Hurlbert To Wed in Summer

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Massey of Moberg drive, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to James Francis Hurlbert, Jr., son of Mr. James Hurlbert of Detroit and the late Mrs. Hurlbert.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Holy Cross Central school of nursing, South Bend, Ind. Her father is presently attending University of Detroit.

An August wedding is planned.

Stewardess Alums Plan Meeting

The Detroit area chapter of Clipped Wings, United Air Lines stewardess alumnae will hold a business meeting March 7 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Robert Schaefer, 19021 Webster, Southfield. Any eligible girls in the area wishing to attend are asked to contact Mrs. Schaefer.

Final plans will be made for the rummage sale to be March 19 at the Masonic hall in Ypsilanti. Proceeds will go to help retarded children throughout the state.
