'Hurray for Our Side!'

BEVERLY HILLS — Shouting with delight when their teammates scored, young cage enthusiasts wait their turn at the Greenfield school Saturday recreation program held each week from 9 to 11 a.m. The program, sponsored by the Beverly Hills recreation department, will be held until Easter. Carl Pendrack, an instructor at Seaholm and a coach at Groves, is the teacher for the classes.

Match Causes Blaze

A smoldering match tossed into a waste basket caused a $700 fire last week at the home of the B. J. Naughtens, 6400 Gilbert Lake road.

The largest North American rodent is the beaver.

Women's Club to Hold Spring Chapeau Show

LATHRUP — The spring hat show by the B. Siegel company that Lathrup woman's club members have been looking forward to will be March 7.

The show will follow the regular monthly business meeting of the club. The Siegel company is going to give a $25 hat to some fortunate lady.

Modeling the hats will be Mrs. Frederick Goodie, Mrs. H. F. Froschlich, Mrs. Robert Steger, Mrs. Oscar Sarjanian, Mrs. Robert Leece, Mrs. Cassius Lea, Mrs. Walter Baughman, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Baurwacker.

A St. Patrick's tea will follow the hat show. Mrs. Ellsworth Brown, tea chairman, will have the assistance of committee members Mrs. Melvin Humphrey, Mrs. Emil Joseph Luckas, Mrs. William K. Burton and Mrs. Edmund Viale will pour.

Honoring Washington's birthday, Mrs. Frederic A. Bunting, Lathrup woman's club members entertained officers and board members of the club in her home with lunch followed by an afternoon of bridge.

The Lathrup woman's bowling league was treated to a luncheon by the owners of Melody Lanes last Tuesday.

If your son or daughter is a student at Southfield high school, or one of the class of 467 ninth graders at Lederle junior high, you should know that these students are heading for a long-long test.

The 12-hour National Inventory of Aptitudes and Abilities test will be given March 29, 30, 31 and April 1.

Sections of the test will include English, math, general information, visual perception, form perception and a student interest inventory.

Southfield high is one of 31 Michigan schools taking part in the project; national, 500 thousand students will be tested.

CRANBROOK — The Clyde Blahards of Cranbrook Village have a busy couple and enjoying every minute of it.

Mrs. Blahard directs a group of Bluebirds on Mondays and is a mother for the club scouts on Wednesdays.

Clyde is substitute for Northbrook school cut pack 15. He also on hand last Friday evening to pin his daughter as the Village Bluebirds received their charter and held their pin ceremony.

Friday evening at Northbrook the Village Bluebirds were hostesses to five Mayflower Congregational Church Campfire girls.

10-B-K girls appeared in their ceremonial uniforms. Following a candlelight ceremony, Mrs. Nell Blahards told their parents what they have done and all about the fun they have had.

Among the Bluebirds flying up into Campfire girls were Linda Sackett, Virginia Groves, Cynthia Baughman and Donna Hall.

Following through on their busy program, the Blahards will transport their group of Bluebirds to Southfield-H school Monday for a party with a Brownie group there. The girls will exchange songs, songs and dances.

A tour of the Detroit historical museum is planned for the Blahards in May 2. The boys will be seeking information on Indian lore. Their present project is making fort reconstructions to show off at the next pack meeting.

Celebrating their 35th anniversary year, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell have just returned from a Ring visit to Tucson, New Orleans and Miami.

Boy Scouts Get Charter In Lathrup

LATHRUP — LC-1 and Explorer Post LC-1 met Feb. 21 at Lathrup school for a joint charter presentation and court of honor.

Dr. Gerald Fitzgerald, chairman of LC-1 boy scout troop, was master of ceremonies. Lloyd Hart, neighborhood representative, presented the charters to both troops.

AFTER THE committee for LC-1 took the oath of office, Hart presented the charter. The troop was also given a unit award for active scouting. Hart said that it was the first troop that had received the award from him this year.

The Joe Carver Indian dancers, the Mar-Poe-To-Pah group, performed following the ceremonies.

Riverwoods Club Plans Luncheon

SOUTHFIELD — You need not be Irish to attend the St. Patrick's luncheon, card party and bake sale sponsored March 17 by the Riverwoods garden club at the Pontiac Federal Savings Bank.

Donations from the event, which begins at noon, will be used for community landscaping. Mrs. Nell McGregor is in charge of the program.

Judge A. E. Moore To Talk in Lathrup

LATHRUP — Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore will be guest speaker at the March 8 meeting of the Lathrup School PTA.

Judge Moore's topic will be juvenile delinquency and what he believes is the most effective way to prevent it.

The public is invited to the meeting which will begin at 8 p.m.

At Ft. Jackson

FORT JACKSON, S. C. — Recruit Jay E. Decker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Decker, 214 Clifton Road, Bloomfield Village, has been assigned to Company A, 17th Specialist Battalion, 4th Training Regiment at Fort Jackson, for advanced specialist training in the Field Communication Crewman's Course.

Area Blood Drive Set March 28 in Franklin

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The steering committee for the March 28 Bloodmobile visit to Franklin Community church convened recently at the home of Mrs. A. Newton Cole.

Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. Carl Maier, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Edward Green, Mrs. Norman Curran, Mrs. George Howard and Mrs. William C. Bunnell attended.

Neighbors will be busy on the phone during March in the Walnut Lake, Wing Lake, Foxcroft and Franklin school districts making appointments for area residents to donate blood on this one day visit.

HOURS are 2:30 to 4:30 and 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. The bank will be shut down for a 4:30 to 5:30 dinner hour for Red Cross personnel. Because of these donors, each section will build its bank reserve to last another year. Oakland is the only county that gives unlimited blood, releasing from $60 to 1000 pints a month.

RECRUITING TEAM chairmen, who are also blood release chairmen, will be called on when there is a need, are Mrs. John Nahabedian, Walnut Lake; Mrs. Edward Schenck, Wing Lake; Mrs. Carl Maier, Foxcroft and Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Franklin.

Mrs. George Howard of Franklin is head of chairmen and may be called if they cannot be contacted.
