2 North Adams Groups Sponsor Dinner-Dances

NORTH ADAMS—The Hillcrest country club was the setting for the Feb. 27 Chapel Hill The Owen Moran Quartet entertained.

Among the subdivisions couples attending this first event were the outgoing president and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus B. Besner of Favorit road, and the incoming president and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Benken of Ashover road. Committee chairman was Richard Hodges of Winchcombe road.

Charing Cross Hamlet entered its first dinner-dance around a Mardi Gras theme at Sylvan Green country club Saturday. Upon arrival each of the 18 subdivision wives were presented a corsage. Planning the party and decorations were Mrs. Vincent Hayes and Mrs. Fred Cruse of Charing Way drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christensen of Keaton drive were the attendants at the Feb. 21 wedding of Mrs. Christensen's sister, at the Lutheran church in Detroit. The bride and groom were Miss Verona Gens of Detroit and Arthur Higdon of Watertown, Wis.

Mrs. Bernard Jacobson will open her Bolingbroke drive home Monday to members of the Osage Garden Club, branch of the W.N.P.A. for the March meeting. Wayne Siefert of Pontiac, guest speaker, will talk on "Green Shrubs and Roses." A question-answer period will follow. Siefert is with the Oakland county extension service which specializes in home landscaping problems. He studied horticulture at Michigan State university.

Mrs. C. Alton Carlson of Bonner road left this week for a month vacation in Jamaica. Her plans include a month in Florida, a visit to Jamaica and the continuing trip to Riviera Beach near W. Palm Beach where they plan to spend the month.

The James Jones of Charing Cross road left last week for a two-week vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. During their stay, they will be the houseguests of Mrs. Jones parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Nancarrow.

The Frank McCartneys of Barley drive entertained at cocktails and dinner before proceeding with their guests to the Rappaport Alpha Theta dance at the Orchard Lake country club last Saturday evening. The semi-formal dance was a benefit for the Camp Oakland Girls Ranch.

The McCartneys guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Bret Williams,

Franklin Prepares Musing Musical For March 18, 19

FRANKLIN—At this point, the Franklin Village Players musical production, "Please, Don't Drink the Cider" is a matter of the one hand not knowing what the other is doing.

Scheduled for March 18 and 19 as a benefit show for the Franklin school PTA, this epic attempt is being rehearsed in disjointed segments.

WITH NO CENTRAL spot for rehearsal, members of the cast are all over the place. Dancing goes on every Wednesday night and Sunday afternoon in the Phil Van Dyke Rec room with Gloria Madge and Nancy Kerr directing—Dr. Conrad Linn holds hand practice every Monday night in the basement of the Community church—specialty acts building up here and there—other sections of this "bottled in Franklin" show have met at the Robert Mitchell's, the Cal Thomas and the Phil Prices. Act II, in its entirety is a self-contained unit under the creative supervision of Edward Green who has literally cut it out of whole cloth and has everyone in stitches.

THIS JIG SAW of activity will have to come to order within a short span of time, when the final dates roll close. Almost every member of Players is doubling in brass since there's hardly anyone who isn't in an act and who doesn't have a committee job. "Please, Don't Drink the Cider" will have plenty of music and laughs... and a real kick in it.

drive has returned home after spending two weeks in the Florida sun. George Glovers Ball Cove at Fort Lauderdale was headquarters during their stay.

Side trips were taken to Boca Raton, Palm Beach and Pompano Beach where they visited friends. They attended Hialeah where they viewed the races. Live colored TV show and met Vaughn Monroe and Gloria DeHaven.

The group included the Donald Benken, the Karl Nelsons, the James Fehlbegs, of Ashover road, the Paul Husars of Winchcombe road, the Robert Fuchs of Ledbury road.

The Harold Beavers of North Adams road are "brand new" grandparents. A son, Michael Harold, was born Feb. 22 to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Beaver of Waterloo, Iowa. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fink of Waterloo, Iowa. Beaver left by plane for Waterloo this week to spend two weeks with the new family.

Mrs. A. M. Eckfeld of E. Long Lake road entertained 12 neighbors at a "Brotherhood Tea" last Wednesday. The tea was in connection with the Detroit Round Table of Catholics, Jews and Protestants of which Mrs. Eckfeld is an active member.

A son, Robert, was born Jan. 20 to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hodges of Winchcombe drive. Enjoying their new little brother are Michael, 14; Christine, 13; Kathryn, 11; Mary Ann, 8; Margaret, 6; Richard, 5, and Julie, 3.

Another "little newcomer" in Chapel Hills Estates is Julia Ann, born Jan. 30 to Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bradley of Ashover road. The Bradley's other children are Clark, 3, and Eric, 1.

Mrs. Howard Berg hosted a Leap Year party in her Fair Hill drive home on Monday, a Birmingham Musicals Benefit. The 16 guests enjoying the dinner-bridge were all of Hickory Heights subdivision.
