First Look at Fashion

Troy's first major fashion show of Spring will be at Troy high school (Livernois at Maple) at 8 p.m. on St. Patrick's day, March 17.

Sponsored by the Troy Business and Professional Women's club, the show, staged by Alvin Steinman of a Pontiac area store, will feature latest fashions modeled by five of Detroit's top professional models, as well as BPW club women and Troy high school girls.

A highlight of the show will be the awarding of a ranc'h milk stole.

Miss Myrtle Bumgart, (left), door prize chairman, is shown holding a few of the many gift certificates and other prizes to be given away at the show and admiring, with Mrs. Delphine DePaw, the crown to be worn by a Troy high school girl who will be reigning with her court, as "Fashion Queen".

Next: the Answers, From, for Citizens

The Birmingham chapter, Citizens for Michigan, has set meeting dates and subject matter for its study groups during March.

The Executive committee has drawn up a list of priority questions to be recommended for study by state committees.
