Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes from Nancy Porter

News for this column may be phoned to Mrs. Porter between 6 and 9:30 P.M. at MI 4-2890

"The swiftest traveler is he that goes afoot" might have been the opinion of Henry David Thoreau, but there seems to be much opposition to that theory from present-day Birmingham residents who fly hither and thither to reach their destinations quickly.

The Richard C. Allmans of Ardmore drive have an extra reason for disputing Thoreau's statement. Due to a skiing accident in the Swiss Alps, Mrs. Allman had to do her European eight-week trip with one leg in a walking cast.

Nevertheless, she and Mr. Allman enjoyed their stay in Rome and were entranced with Paris, where in true feminine fashion, Mrs. Allman shopped for and purchased a Parisian hat.

They arrived in London just as the town was rife with excitement over Princess Margaret's engagement announcement. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Getzinger of Bryn Mawr drive were with the Allmans in Switzerland. They took their nine-year-old son John with them so that he could visit his grandmother. (Mrs. Getzinger's mother whose home is in Zurich, former Birmingham resident.)

Travelers Return

Other returned travelers who chose a boat trip as their method of locomotion are Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hutchins of Bewn road who were joined by Mrs. Hutchins' mother, Mrs. Rachel M. Kim, of Catalpa road, and Mr. Hutchins' father, Carlton Hutchins, of Saugatuck, Mich., on a Caribbean cruise. Previous to the cruise, Mrs. Kim visited a friend in Ft. Lauderdale for a week while the Hutchinses went on to Coconut Grove to meet Carleton Hutchins in his winter home. The foursome sailed from Port Everglades on the Barbara, Calif., where she visited with her mother Mrs. O. L. Beaudette, of Pontiac, Mich., and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Beaudette.

Mrs. William Shalberg has returned after a month in Hollywood, Fla., where she was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mock, former Birmingham residents.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Yaw of West Long lake road returned Sunday from a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kirk, of Washington, D. C.

Guest for a Week

Mrs. M. E. Burgess of Country Club drive has a visit from her grandson Tommy this week while Mr. and Mrs. Tolmas and Mrs. Burgess moved from their home on Woodland road to a new home on Burning Bush. Mrs. Burgess had spent the previous week in New York attending the meeting of the "Michigan Kidney Disease Foundation" as a national board member.

'Winter Blues'

Other area travelers escaping the late winter "blues" are Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gossett of Goodhue road, who are at Arizona Inn in Tucson for the month of March, and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Gooden, also of Goodhue road, who are in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Also in Scottsdale are Dr. and Mrs. J. Donald Sheets of Fairway drive. They are spending three weeks at the Grand Hyatt Hotel. Other Scottsdale winter residents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Colman of Rastiner road and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Colman of North Cranbrook.

The L. C. Goats of Lone Pine road have chosen Camelback Inn, near Phoenix, Ariz., as the spot for their winter vacation.

Phoenix has also attracted the Ernest R. Breches.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease Jr. of Grand drive are at their winter home in West Palm Beach, Fla. The Edwin M. Beresford are at Yero Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. McIntire left Monday evening for their customary stay at the Golden Falcon in Pompano Beach, Fla.

Leaving Soon

Taking advantage of Kingwood coast vacation where daughter Julie is in the eighth grade, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Williams of Burning Bush road will leave March 17 for Delray Beach, Fla., with Julie and son Bobby. Saturday they invited 10 boys for Bobby's 10th birthday. After ice cream and cake they took the boys bowling. They will return by April 6th when they have tickets for "Music Man" for all four of them.

Feted at Luncheon

Mrs. Wright Tisdale of Lyonhurst road is having a luncheon tomorrow for Mrs. Roy Olson, who is remaining at the Shurely drive home of her parents, the Jonathan M. Ballis until her husband is able to find a home for them in Tripoli, Libya, where he has been assigned.

Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff of Puritan road will also entertain for Mrs. Olson at a tea. The other honor guest at Mrs. Woodruff's tea will be Mrs. Richard Allen Jones of Fardone, Italy, who is staying here with her parents, the Benjamin Brewsters of Brookdale road.

Mrs. Jones will also be entertained by Mrs. Martin Archangelo of Midland road.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Breda of Yorkshire road celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last night at Orchard Lake country club at a dinner party given by their sons-in-law and daughters, the William B. Van Dusen of Metamora and the T. F. Neals of Gladysre, Pa.

Dance at Playhouse

The Village Players' social committee, headed by Lawton Tabor, is completing plans for the formal dinner-dance to be held March 12 at the Playhouse. Formal tables covered with white cloths, arrangements of spring flowers, and music and dancing are some of the features that the members will be looking forward to.

Among those who have made early reservations are the Play president Charles N. Blunt and Mrs. Blunt, the William L. Martina, the John Gilray, the John Mitchell, the Lance Minors, the Donald Morris, the Frances Matoucks, the Andrew Butts, the Theodore Eiters, the William Candler, the Frank Mosher, the Hans Schjoms.

Others planning to attend the Players' dinner-dance are the Richard W. Brown, the Harris Macchuss, the Justin L. Schaffers, and the John A. Parkes.

B'ham Represented

The Birmingham area was well represented Saturday afternoon in the penthouse of the Veterans' Memorial building at a tea sponsored by the Detroit Wellesley Club, honoring Margaret Clapp, president of Wellesley College.

Hostesses were Mrs. William C. Norvell and Mrs. Murray Greenblatt. The Rev. William C. Norvell was also present.

Others at the tea were Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Barney, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Lake, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Rice, and Mrs. Harvey White, and Mr. and Mrs. James T. Barnard.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. William Hooper Trautner (the former Joseph Rothman) of Princeton, N. J., announce the birth of Madeline Ruth on Feb. 21. Grandparents are the Edward E. Rothmans and the Walter P. Trautners, both of Lakecrest drive.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, birth parties are all news—the society editor about them.

Miami Graduate Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Schumacher of Dayton, Ohio, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Emily Elaine, to Gordon James Pade, son of Mrs. Carol G. Horton Jr., of Detroit, and James R. Pade of Birmingham.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, where she became a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and is now teaching in Garden City.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Birmingham high school and is presently attending Miami university. His fraternity is Delta Tau Delta.
