First-hand Facts on Foreign Aid To be Presented at MSU-O

A Birmingham woman, Mrs. Walter N. Jackson of Madison street, is chairman of an Institute, "First-hand Facts on Foreign Aid," to be presented by the eight Leagues of Women voters of Oakland and Macomb counties at MSU-O in Rochester March 28.

Co-sponsoring the Institute is MSU-O and serving with Mrs. Jackson is Dr. Lowell Eklund, director of continuing education at the new university.

All Leagues of Women voters have been studying foreign policy for the past two years, with special attention to foreign aid as a positive new topic. Members of the Birmingham league's foreign policy committee, of which Mrs. Jackson is chairman, are now working on the final phase of this study, which is "Bringing it to the Community."

Composing Mrs. Jackson's planning committee for the Institute are the eight foreign policy chairmen of the other eight leagues in the two counties and also members of the Birmingham league's committee.
