

Hills Student Receives Award In Art Contest

The first place award ribbon in the Michigan Cancer Foundation's Art Poster contest for the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills branch was awarded to Vicki Sexauer, a 9th grade student at Bloomfield Hills junior high school.

Vicki's poster was selected out of 32 entrants by the judges, Dr. J. L. Barrett of Lathrup Village, Mrs. William Newberg of Island Lake and Glen Michaels, director of the young peoples art center.

THE FIRST place poster will now be entered in the unit judging to compete against other branch winners from South Oakland county. The second and third place ribbons were awarded to Sue Monroe and Sally Rush respectively. Both girls are attending Derby junior high school.

Award certificates were also given to the best three posters from each school. Winners from Bloomfield Hills high school are Barbara Littman, Cathy Newmeyer and John Buschagen. At Bloomfield Hills junior high certificates were given to Vicki Sexauer, Pat Remy and Rusty Aldridge. Derby winners are Sue Monroe, Sally Rush and Karen Shaw.

Kappa Kappa Gammmas Entertain at Party

Five happy boys and girls in the Child Psychiatry program for children at the Pontiac state hospital had a birthday party Friday that they will long remember.

The Kappa Kappa Gammmas alumnae of the North Woodward hospital grounds to a real birthday setting, and tucked in among the birthday cookies and treats for the 36 children was a check for $687.50 made out to the Foundation for Aid to Emotionally Disturbed Children.

THE FOUNDATION will use the funds to erect a recreation playfield for the children at the Pontiac state hospital. The funds were raised by sponsoring the benefit performance of "Nude with Violin" at St. Dunstan's playhouse, February 18. Chairman of the event was Mrs. Richard V. Anderson of Deepwood, Bloomfield Hills.

Throughout the year the Kappas will be sponsoring quarterly birthday parties for the children. The March 11 party, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donald H. King of Westchester Village, honored the boys and girls whose birthdays fall in the months of January, February or March.

HIGHLIGHTING the occasion were the puppet show by Mrs. J. M. Scribner of Hazel Avenue, Mrs. Eric L. Holmgren of Westbourne Drive in a clown outfit distributing balloons, and the snapshots of the children taken and distributed by Mrs. Watson N. Spoelstra of Kenosaw.

Assisting the committee which decorated the gymnasium and provided refreshments were Mesdames Rollin E. Gish, Robert J. Fisher, Robert Close, M. Craig Miller, Russell G. Heyl, Jr., and L. Gerald Robinson of Birmingham.

New Members Star in Comedy

Several new members will start in "The Time of the Cuckoo," a comedy to be presented by St. Dunstan's Guild on April 1, 2, 8 and 9. Mrs. Charles S. Himelhoch will play the part of June Yeager, and Charles Campbell will play the role of her husband, Eddie Yeager, an American artist living in Venice.

Other recent newcomers to St. Dunstan's include Margaret Kevorkian, C. S. Himelhoch, Mary Lou Bernecker, Boston Garfield, Mrs. Paul Geiger, the Franklin Butlers, the C. W. McLoughlins, Mrs. Andrew Shepard and the A. H. Otis Jr.

Aeronautical Group To Meet March 22

The Women's aeronautical association will meet March 22 at the Woman's city club. Dinner will be at 6:30 p.m. with a meeting following at 7:30.

Mrs. Joseph A. Gillis, Jr. will preside on the written examination and flight test requirements for her recently acquired pilot's license.

Hospitality Chairmen

Mrs. Paul J. Davison and Mrs. C. K. Nauman, members of the Bloomfield art association will be the hospitality chairmen at the March 20 fused glass demonstration by Svea Kline. It will be held at the association, 361 1/2 North Woodward.

Players to Troup 'The Foxy Foxes'

Birmingham Junior league players are trouping this week with their new play, "The Foxy Foxes." Written by Jerry McMechan, the story is about two little foxes who play all summer and when winter comes find they have no place to live. They finally cause enough trouble so that they are arrested and put in a nice warm jail for the winter.

Harry L. Swan and director is Mrs. Weeslau Wright. Others behind the scenes are Mrs. Richard F. Hintermeister, Mrs. Leslie Burgin, Mrs. W. H. Klenke, Jr., Mrs. R. W. Scripps, Mrs. A. J. Shepard.

Cast members include Mesdames J. O. Nordlie, J. K. Armstrong, P. M. Gay, E. E. Fisher, O. C. Thompson, Franklin Butler and D. F. Taylor.
