

Judith Granger Weds Robert Earl Buckley

Given in marriage by her father, Judith Harriet Granger became the bride of Robert Earl Buckley Saturday afternoon at the First Methodist church in Birmingham. Dr. A. F. Runkel officiated at the 2 o'clock ceremony. He was assisted by the bride's uncle, the Rev. Ralph Witmer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Granger of Glenview drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Buckley of Blue Island, Ill.

MRS. ROBERT E. BUCKLEY

JUDITH appeared in a princess gown fashioned of delicately satin designed with a bateau neckline accented by hand made roses, pearl and crystal beading, chapel train, bell skirt with full draped back finished with a French bow at waist line and traditional lace pointed sleeves.

A tiny circle of aloncon lace held a cluster of imported hand made orange blossoms and a shower length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses, orchids and carnations.

MRS. CAROL Zentmyer served as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Jeanne Granger, Allison Bradley and Geri-Lou Blahnik. Matron of honor donned a radiant blue silk taffeta with a neckline accented by submerse type pleats, full pleated skirt and Victorian type sleeves.
