One More Time On the March 28 School Vote Facts

If you haven't yet read these important facts relating to the special March 28 millage election in the Birmingham school district, this is your final opportunity.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Rows include 'What are we voting on?', 'For how long will this voted millage be collected?', 'How much money are we spending on school operation?', etc.

Why do we have to spend it for these things? If we don't, then our teachers' salary schedules—already at the lower end of the Detroit metropolitan communities—will drop through the floor.

What is the school district's present total millage? It is 22.48 mills. This consists of 13.98 mills for school operation, plus 8.5 mills for school debt.

How much additional money will be obtained from this 4-mill increase? Equalized school district valuation of $190,262,404 times 4 mills equals $761,049.61.

What is the district's ASSESSED and EQUALIZED valuations in 1957? The assessed valuation was $89,868,559, the equalized valuation $108,978,957.
