Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes from Nancy Porter

News for this column may be phoned to Mrs. Porter between 6 and 9:30 P.M. at MI 4-2880

Because of being on a plane flight from Willow Run to Cincinnati last Wednesday evening and the fateful day of March, this columnist understands the full flavor of William Dean Howells' poem "Earliest Spring" . . .

"Tossing his mane of snows in wildest eddies and tangles, Lion-like March comes in, with tempestuous breath." The passengers all wondered, after a half-hour delay, during which the wings were being de-iced, whether the plane would ever take off and after it did take off they wondered if it should have.

Sitting across the aisle from and calmly writing a letter was Mrs. H. Edmund Lunken of Cincinnati, a regional director of the Junior League, who was just returning from a visit to the Birmingham League.

Through a mutual friend, Mrs. Harrison P. Warren, we met again by chance at the Country club in Cincinnati the following day and discovered how much she had enjoyed her visit here.

Tuesday she had met for lunch at Oakland Hills country club with officers Mrs. John K. Martin, Mrs. William B. Bachman Jr., Mrs. Robert D. Seiler, Mrs. Frederick S. Booth, Mrs. John K. Martin, Mrs. William M. Kelly, and Mary L. Taylor.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN Mrs. A. E. Parman Jr., Mrs. Robert E. Gotsinger, Mrs. J. Clark Alberts, Mrs. Otis C. Thompson, Mrs. William H. Baldwin, Mrs. Fred Kern, Mrs. William C. Davis, Mrs. William H. Barney, Mrs. Peter C. Higgins, Mrs. Wright Fisher, Mrs. Warren S. Booth, Mrs. Sidney W. Smith Jr., and Phoebe Otter.

A dancing contest for all classes resulted in the winning of silver cups by many proud couples. Seventh grade winners were John Tate, son of the John R. Tate and Sheila Stone, daughter of the Robert L. W. Stones.

SIXTH GRADE winners were Jerry Mason, son of the Charles F. Masons, Debbie Bergstrom, daughter of the Gil Bergstroms, Sally Amos, daughter of the Wilfred Amoses, and Larry Kirchner, son of the Fred Kirchners.

Winners in another sixth grade class were Bill Adams, Linda Stubbs, David Welch and Martha Payton, children of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Stubbs, Mr. and Mrs. David Welch and Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Payton, respectively.

FIFTH GRADERS proud of their newly won trophies were Marcia Caldwell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard L. Caldwell, Jeff Copeland, son of the Junior Arch Copelands, Steve Kitts, son of Mrs. A. S. Kitts, and Marianne Schmink, daughter of the Edwin Schminks.

Student assistants who helped serve punch and cookies were Susan Diehl, daughter of the Junior Lloyd H. Diehl, Stan Cutler, son of the George Cutlers, Margie Woolson, daughter of the Herbert Woolsons and John Slater, son of the John G. Slaters.

Han Reid's "combo" provided the dance music with Bob Tipler at the piano. Dan's parents are the

and her aunts, Mrs. Edward Rothman and Mrs. Martin Butzel.

THE PARTY had an earlier date than originally planned because the Rubens are moving to Geneva, Switzerland, where Mr. Ruben has been given a three to five year assignment by his employer. They will leave this week end to spend four or five days in New York before flying to Paris and then to Geneva.

The Winstons gave a cocktail-supper party for their Sunday evening, and the Rothmans entertained for them the previous Sunday.

Mrs. Bahr's parents, the Charles W. Renfrews, are presently in Pass-a-Grille, Fla., visiting at the home of Mrs. Renfrew's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. George McQuire, and are expected home next weekend.

MRS. BAHR'S sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Bruce Renfrew, is staying with the Bahrs while her husband, Lt. Renfrew, is stationed on the coast of Formosa.

PARENTS WERE invited, too. They watched from the balcony or joined in the dancing, or snapped pictures. Among those spotted at the event were the David Burnett, the Robert A. Reids, Bob's are the Jack H. Tiplers.

Also present were Robert W. Hubert, Frederick A. Ebb, and Frederick C. Matthaei Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Matthaei have recently returned from Cat Cay in the Bahama Islands where they were the guests of the senior Fred Matthaei.

Many other travelers have returned from a trip to Bermuda and Nassau aboard the Queen of Bermuda. Their passage was one of the stormiest on record with the highest winds that the crew could remember. Because of the winter weather in Nassau the Easter lily plants are only a foot high with no buds and will have to do some fast growing to be ready on time.

In Puerto Rico

The Robert H. Taylors of Orchard Ridge road are due back from a 10-day vacation at Dorado Beach, Puerto Rico, and the E. H. Motts of Northlawn road are home from a vacation in Hawaii and Palm Springs, Calif. Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Fox of Brookside road and Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Wykopp of Ridgewood road returned Sunday from the Wykopp's home on St. Croix in the Virgin Islands.

Jaunt to N. Y.

Home from a five-day jaunt to New York are Mrs. John S. Judd and her daughter Mimi, now on vacation from Kingswood, school where she is an eighth-grade student. A pre-birthday celebration for Mimi, the trip included "Flow-ers in the Wind" and "Scent of Mystery."

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Polk Jr. of Cranbrook court also vacationed in New York, where they stayed at the St. Regis and took in some shows.

Wyoming Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Oglesby and their son John of Westwood drive are home after a 10-day visit with relatives in Miami Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Denton Anderson of Lone Pine road have had house guests from Wyoming, former Bloomfield Hills residents the Mark Pattens, who had just recently visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sladler, in Urbana, Ohio.

The E. S. Reids Jr. of Clifton road also had houseguests, their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Reid and their children Laura and Mark, of Brooklyn Heights, N. Y.

Mrs. H. S. Ruben

Peted Yesterday

Yesterday Mrs. Frederick G. Bahr and Mrs. William K. Downey were co-hostesses at a luncheon and baby shower at the home of Mrs. Bahr's parents, the Charles W. Renfrews, for Mrs. Herbert S. Ruben, Mrs. Ruben's mother and sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry L. Winston and Mrs. Harry L. Winston Jr. were present, as were Mrs. Ruben's sister Mrs. Eliot Robinson
