

Paula Luscombe Weds Daniel T. Michaud

Paula Joanne Luscombe became the bride of Daniel Thomas Michaud Saturday in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. J. J. Lisse in Saint Gregory church. She was escorted to the altar by her brother, William Kydd Luscombe. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jewell Luscombe of North Worth, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Luscombe. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Michaud of Detroit.

SHE APPEARED in a gown fashioned of Dresden silk designed with a scalloped scoop neckline edged with pearl trimmed alencon lace and a full carriage skirt with a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion cascaded from a semi-pillbox of alencon lace with a scalloped edging covered with tiny pearls. She carried a colonial cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

MRS. WILLIAM KYDD LUSCOMBE of Lincoln Park served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Patricia Andrus, Nancy Jane Platz and Barbara Luscombe. They were gowned alike in peacock blue silk organza over taffeta with a portrait necklines and small cap sleeves in a draped bodice topped bell shaped skirts. They wore tiny matching hats and carried colonial bouquets of shell pink roses, blue and pink hydrangeas.

FLOWER GIRL was Janet Mary Luscombe, niece of the bride, and ring bearer was Billy Luscombe, nephew. Janet was dressed in a shell pink organza dress and a bandeau made of flowers to match her miniature bouquet.

MRS. DANIEL MICHAUD

Mother of the bride wore a beige silk organza dress with matching accessories and pinned green cymbidium orchids to her hair. Mrs. Michaud wore a royal blue lace dress with matching accessories and pink cymbidium orchids.

CHESTER SUSALLA stood as best man and ushers were Robert Michaud, brother of the groom, Melynn Susalla, Bernard Cassin and Patrick Bradford. A reception at the Statler-Hilton hotel followed immediately after the ceremony after which the couple left for a two weeks honeymoon in Phoenix. They will go to San Francisco before returning to their new home in Detroit.
