

Tax

indicate people just don't want their taxes raised any higher. This is borne out by comments of many people on Tuesday.

It's no reflection on our teachers or that salaries shouldn't be increased—it's just that people decided now is the time to halt the spiral," is the consensus.

IN A WEDNESDAY morning statement, Mrs. Loomis said:

"This vote indicates to the board that many of our voters do not fully understand our need for the money asked. We will continue to emphasize to the community the need for these funds.

"Because of this vote it will be impossible to hire badly needed teachers this spring, and many of our classrooms will be further overcrowded next year.

"And, equally unfortunate, Birmingham teachers will be paid next year on a salary schedule which is substantially inferior to that of many neighboring communities."

MEANWHILE, Supt. Dwight B. Ireland and his staff must sign new contracts with teachers who will be getting a normal $200 increment for 1960-61 but no additional $10 salary schedule increase. Teachers now start at $4,500 annually.

Ireland said he will have to move fast to finish his tentative budget, which must go to the county board of education by April 15.

HE FORECAST the board would have to make some drastic decisions to keep expenses within present millages.

"There'll be some mighty heavy class leads next year," he predicted. The extension would have provided 51 additional teachers. Class loads this year average 33.5 students.

"I think we will lose many of the gains we have made in the past 10 years," he declared. The "multi-track" programs in mathematics, physics, chemistry and other subjects probably will have to be discontinued, the superintendent believes.

THESE PROGRAMS are designed to benefit the considerable number of talented and gifted school students who find regular courses unchallenging.

He said the schools will save very little by eliminating teacher positions like art, home economics, journalism, and others which some people consider "frills."

"You are going to have to teach the non-college student something to enable him to graduate and immediately get a job," Ireland emphasized.

NORTHCENTRAL accrediting association prohibits a teacher from having more than five classes of more than 30 students in each, Ireland said.

Where will Monday's vote show up educationally?

In the quality of teachers we can recruit for our classrooms and the education they give your students," Ireland answered.
