Eliminate B'ham Traffic Snarls, Candidate Asks

Another Birmingham situation needing attention is the traffic congestion on our downtown streets, emphasized Mrs. Florence Willett, a candidate for re-election at the April 4 municipal election. "We must make immediate plans to ease this traffic congestion before—not after—we lose our shoppers to other areas. It cannot wait for long-range or 10-year studies."

a housewife explains:

"Why I opened an account at AMERICAN SAVINGS"

"I chose American Savings for convenience and security. With children and a house to look after, the nearby neighborhood branch is a real time-saver. Naturally, the higher return on our money means more security for us. And another thing . . . if an emergency arises, our money is available immediately. I put my family first . . . so I put my money in American Savings!"
