West B'field Players Busy with Spring Show

The Township Players of West Bloomfield have selected for this spring's production "YEARS AGO," by Ruth Gordon. It will be presented May 6 and 7 at the West Bloomfield high school, Commerce and Orchard Lake roads.

The director for this production, Donald Craig, has his cook in rehearsal and states that "an enjoyable evening is guaranteed for those attending this production."

SINCE THEIR organization in 1956, the Township Players have presented 10 productions to the public, all of which were very well received. In addition to their public performances, the Township Players have also presented for private audiences a number of one-act plays.

Monthly meetings, which are held the second Thursday of every month at the West Bloomfield Town Hall, include some type of entertainment in the field of the theatre.

THIS ENABLES new members as well as old, to gain stage experience before assuming the more demanding roles of a three act play. Set construction, make-up and costume committees offer ac-
