and potential to win. The following boys were entered: Doug Peters, Art Shuler, Steve Billings, Norm Gofrank and Tony Kenny.

The boys did very well in the all-state swimming meet Saturday. Bill Quick, Lee Driver, Russell Martin and Bob Sutton placed fourth in the 200 yard medley relay. Lee Driver in class B placed second in the 100 yard breast-stroke. Bob Sutton placed fourth in the 50 yard free style. The boys did a fine job, and we want to congratulate them.

Groves variety show, under the direction of Mr. Krueger, is now under way. The acts have been chosen and the groups are busy practicing and getting in shape. The following acts have been chosen for the variety show next month:

14 Groves Highlanders, 21 Can't Say "No", 21 Pretty Baby, 21 Brown and Juliet, 51 Along Came Jones, 61 Glow Worm, 71 Piano Solo, 81 Silvertones, 91 Ballet Accordion. Some of the boys in Mrs. Simkins tenth-grade fifth-hour English class have been very busy on a project of rebuilding a replica of the Globe theater.

Bryan Carpenter, Bob Rottiers, Frank Green, and Bob Glime have worked very hard on this project and should be complemented on their expert work.

The seventh and eighth graders of Groves had their second dance of the year, March 18. The Clover-leaf capet was a big success. Over half the students attended and had a wonderful time.

A banquet was held March 23 for the basketball and swim teams. This was called award night and all the boys attended with their fathers.

Speakers were Mr. Nagley and Dr. Ireland. The awards were given by Mr. Carson, Mr. Rallins, Mr. Pendrack, and Mr. Gilster.

Toastmaster for the evening was Mr. Golliber. Gifts presented to the coaches were presented by the teams representatives, Bill Stephenson, Russell Ritter, and Mike Beardon. Grace was said by Frank Green.

THE BILLBOARD

BLOOMFIELD HILLS HIGH

Week Was Almost Exciting

Last week was a momentous one in the lives of all seniors. Accompanied by seven teachers, about 60 percent of the class toured Washington and Williamsburg March 22-25.

After many changes in the itinerary it was decided that the group fly on two planes from Detroit to Washington on Tuesday night, Wednesday morning, on to Williamsburg by bus.

Wednesday afternoon was spent touring Williamsburg, and the evening hours were filled at a special floor show in the lodge.

Thursday evening the group was back in Washington, and Friday was spent touring Washington by bus. The return flights were also doubled to accommodate the large number of students.

It was generally felt among the students that the itinerary was very close and hurried.

Those who went certainly enjoyed the trip, but the cost of $125 was thought quite high for the three-day trip.

Because of state aid, the school board felt that the traveling seniors should not miss more than three days of school, and the board also prohibited the return trip to be made on Sunday.

Because of accommodations were available on Saturday, a three-day trip — a short time for either Washington or Williamsburg, let alone both of them — was the only possible solution. Still, those who went were happy.

The second flight to leave Willow Run airport on Tuesday was delayed for two hours by a bomb scare, the origin of which remains uncertain.

The FBI was contacted and is investigating. A second bomb notice was called on the school on Thursday, after which the entire student body was placed in the gym (after the gym was searched), but the all-clear was sounded soon. The caller is still unknown.

For the seniors who remained at home during the trip, it was a long and two days spent in school. Most classes were either suspended or consolidated, but each turned into a study hall.

Consequently, most seniors attended twelve consecutive study halls, which made for two mighty uninteresting days. Attendance was compulsory because of state aid regulations.

Here and there, Friday was a welcome respite, particularly for the weary study-hall seniors, because school was suspended for teachers' convention.

Only the baseball team met to practice with coach Trot, who plans a season with about sixteen players. The final cut is still to be made.

The junior play, "The Little Dog Laughed", is nearing readiness, and will be presented, April 1 and 2.

The performances begin at 8:15 in the high school gymnasium, and this little comedy is certainly entertaining. The public is invited to attend, so if you're in the area come over and enjoy a relaxing evening.

Got Their Ring

Tenth-grade students at Groves high school made a final decision on the class rings. All rings will have a green stone, with the name Groves high school surrounding it.

A falcon and the year of graduation will go on each side of the ring. "We want to thank Jeff Tapero for all his work on designing the school ring," a student spokesman said.
