4 Seek Place on B'ham Library Board

In Birmingham's annual city election next Monday, electors will vote on four city commissioners, three public library board members, a constable, and four local special propositions.

Here is biographical information and statements released this week by two library board candidates: (information on commission candidates and local propositions are in a story on page 1-A.):

Running for election to three year board terms are:

KATHARINE G. SMITH, 1836 Oak. Mrs. Smith has lived in Birmingham for 18 years. Among the organizations she is a member of are Friends of Baldwin Library, former board member of Birmingham league of women voters, treasurer of B'ham society of women painters, the Michigan academy of science, arts and letters (fine arts section).

MRS. KATHARINE SMITH

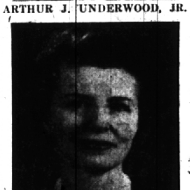
JAMES TOBIN, incumbent, 647 Kennesaw, Birmingham. Tobin was first elected in 1957.

JAMES TOBIN

ARTHUR J. UNDERWOOD, Jr., 898 Mohegan, Birmingham. He has lived in Birmingham for 27 years. He is a member of Psi Upsilon, Orchard Lake country club, Detroit Adcraft club, and Friends of Baldwin public library.

ARTHUR J. UNDERWOOD, JR.

MRS. CARLYN (W. Ogden) VOGT, 515 Puritan, Birmingham will become a new member of the board. She is unopposed for the 2-year vacancy on the board.



MRS. CARLYN VOGT

Mrs. Vogt, a resident for 11 years, has served on the board or chaired committees of the league of women voters, Friends of Baldwin library and Village women's club.

Mrs. Smith said:

"The Baldwin public library board is now composed of four men and two women, but one of the women, Mrs. Oliver Rodgers, is resigning because she is moving away from Birmingham. It is her place on the board, that I would like to take.

"Men contribute enormously to such a board in executive and financial experience.

"My contribution as a woman would be the free time I have to spend in the community, acting as a sounding board for local opinions, visiting other libraries to compare their services and equipment with ours, studying material put out by library specialists, and in general acting as a two-way source of information — reflecting community sentiment to the board and interpreting library problems to the community.

Underwood said:

"As a resident of the Birmingham area for over 26 years I have long been interested in and followed the growth of Baldwin public library.

Although the library is taking a major step forward with the building of a new addition this solves only one of the many problems facing the library board at the present time.

"The board has the challenging task of keeping pace with the continued growth of the Birmingham area and sound business sense as well as a lot of time and effort will be needed to plan wisely for the future.

"I feel that I will be able to contribute to this future planning as well as to the library's normal day-to-day operation."

'Combination Role Big Help' —Mrs. Willett

One unusual contribution Mrs. Florence Willett has made to Birmingham municipal affairs is her dual role as city commissioner and plan board member. "I am both pleased and grateful that my male colleagues have given me this additional responsibility," said Mrs. Willett, who is up for re-election to a three-year term at the city's April 4 election. 'I thuh have been able to gain greater perspective of the problems and the opportunities which come before the city commission for action. I hope you will entrust me with another three years by voting for me on April 4," Mrs. Willett said.
