Swim Club Plans Near Final Stage

NORTH ADAMS—While the north winds blow and snow drifts cover the area, a group of Troyton Manor residents, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooker of Brooklawn, looked toward summertime as their dreams of an area swim club began to take shape.

The olympic-size pool, 85 x 45 feet with a 20 x 35 pool diving L, and a circular splash pool for the little tots will be under construction shortly. It will be known as the Troyton Manor Swim Club and will be located in a two-acre plot bounded by Brooklawn and Norwich drives, just east of Adams and South of Big Beaver roads. The pool will be christened in July of this year. A 90-car lot will handle the non-walkers.

The planning committee met at the Charles Hooker home an evening last week to complete the final stages of the swim club that will accommodate 300 North Adams families. The committee officers, all of Troyton Manor, include Charles Hooker, chairman; George Whitehead, membership; Douglas Watson, finance; Leo Clougherty, building and William Chew, by-laws.

North Adams residents interested in belonging to the swim club may contact the Charles Hookers of Brooklawn this weekend or not later than April 30 for details.

The John Kohls of Orchard Hill drive and the R. V. Andersons of Bloomfield Hills have returned home after spending two weeks on the island of Haiti. Much of their vacation was spent at the Villa Creole high in the mountains. They flew to Cap Haitien at the far end of the island to tour the countryside.

Another trip was made four and a half miles up the mountain on horseback to view the historical Citadel. A reigning Negro emperor or slave labor to build the landmark 150 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lohr of Queens Way drive were joined March 11 by Mr. and Mrs. William R. Davis of Detroit on a jet

Presbyterian church on Big Beaver road hosted a Sunday reception in the church for Mr. and Mrs. Sigfred Ringi and their six-year-old son, Andreas, who arrived from Germany three months ago. This is the second family to be sponsored by the church in the last year. Planning the reception were Mrs. William Armstrong of Orchard Hill Drive and Mrs. William Mordack of Pembroke road.

The Marc Hagerman home on Butternut Hill drive is alive with birthday parties these days. Bobbie Hagerman celebrated her third birthday March 21 by inviting playmates in for refreshments. Steve Hagerman celebrated his sixth birthday with a luncheon party for 11 Harlan school friends. Doug Hagerman will take a few friends to the "Shakes Alive" in Waterford for his eighth birthday treat April 2.

Karen D. Shaw, daughter of the Francis Shaws of Meadowlark, won third place in the cancer poster contest at Derby junior high school where she is a ninth grade student, last week. Karen was among the Oakland county winners receiving certificates April 2.

The Edward Browns of Robson lane and the James Duttons of Ledberry road are looking forward to attending "Music Man" an evening soon.

The Lambda Chi Omega sorority met at the Fox and Hounds for brunch and their semi-annual state convention a Sunday recently. Among the 60 attending were Mrs. Harold Beaver and Mrs. Arthur O'Kelly of Birmingham, Mrs. Carl Griffin and Mrs. Grant Clann of Royal Oak, the state president.

Slides and an informal discussion on "Trees" will be the topic of Mrs. L. E. Carter of Birmingham, when she meets April 4 with members of the Osage Garden club. Mrs. Carter is on the state photography committee and formerly taught "Nature".

The meeting will be held at the Dowling road home of Mrs. Frederick Stanfinsky. Tea time will follow the meeting.
