Westchester Considers Community Swim Pool

WESTCHESTER—A proposed community swimming pool for residents of the Westchester area was discussed March 22 at the general meeting of the Greater Westchester association held at the Birmingham community house. President Leop Jacobson, presiding.

Although the idea is still in the embryonic stages, plans were made to check on property that might be available for such an undertaking and a survey made to ascertain the sentiment of residents toward the proposed project.

Westchester women's club, known for their many work projects, will sponsor a "fun" project May 22.

Tickets will go on sale April 1 to members and their husbands for the May 22 presentation of "Flower Drum Song" at the Riviera.

Plans include chartered buses to take the group to the theater.

For further information contact Mrs. John Spomer, 175 Hillboro drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Johnson of Farmington drive returned from San Francisco recently after attending the Associated General Contractors national convention.

Prior to the convention, they spent a week at the El Mirador Hotel in Palm Springs.

The last in a series of dinners sponsored by the dance group of the Westchester Women's club was held last Saturday evening at the Fox and Hounds.

WESTCHESTER — The regular business meeting and luncheon of the St. Francis Cabrini guild will be held April 6 at the home of Mrs. William Christensen, 20766 Kennaway drive.

Mrs. Frank Neward and Mrs. Fred Polidan will assist the hostess at this meeting which will include the election of officers.

Cranbrook-Maple Tourists Return From Hawaii

CRANBROOK-MAPLE — Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hyman of S. Cranbrook Crosroad returned recently from a three-week southern vacation. After spending a week in Los Angeles, they flew by jet to Hawaii and made their headquarters at the Hawaiian Village Hotel.

A cruise to Pearl Harbor, a tour of the Sargo submarine and a series of Hawaiian dance lessons made their visit most enjoyable before they left to fly back to San Francisco and a five-day visit in that interesting city.

Mrs. Whitford DaShell of S. Cranbrook Crosroad entertained several of her neighbors at a St. Patrick's luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weber of S. Cranbrook road returned recently from a two-week visit with his parents in Ft. Lauderdale.

Water Resources In Oakland County Topic of Speakers

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH — The Bloomfield-Berkshires improvement association will meet at 7 p.m. April 6 to hear Dr. Andrew J. Mozola speak on the ground water resources in Oakland county.

Dr. Mozola teaches in the geology department of Wayne State university. He was recommended as a speaker by the state conservation department because his doctoral work was on the topic.

All interested residents are invited to attend.

Fond Farewell For Chandlers

BIRMINGHAM FARMS — The Louis Woodboys of Cedarbrook drive entertained 50 guests March 19 at a bon voyage party in honor of the Maucis Chandlers of Detroit who will be touring Europe for the next few weeks. Guests enjoyed cocktails and a buffet dinner.

planned for 1961 and will include 13 couples, mostly Franklinites who agreed they'd like to make the 33-day jaunt abroad if Roseberrys could manage the arrangements.

Even the preliminary planning calls for social functions, so Mrs. Roseberry has had a series of small dinners to discuss the itinerary and details. Things have moved so rapidly she hasn't gotten around to calling everyone, so she hopes they'll call her.

Taking a sabbatical from the role of a busy wife and mother, Mrs. Marjorie Mitchell headed west for Arizona Friday for two weeks on a ranch near Tucson. Home fires are kept burning brightly by her mother, Mrs. George Mumford and all the Mitchell men.

A Hawaiian luau, true to life in nearly every detail, was held Friday at the Oldie home on Adair court. Held as a surprise birthday party, honoring Nancy Schaeffer of Birmingham, the luau was a production masterpiece for its ten participants. Authentically prepared foods, borrowed palms and islands of colored light created a tropical oasis in the snow-covered hills of Franklin.

The Robert Lorenz of Kirk Lane spent the weekend "down home" in Columbus, Ohio.

The Hamans of Woodlore were among the few who rejoiced to see additional snow. They hurried up to Osego to take advantage of the school holiday and the last remaining chance to ski.

A 6,000 mile Odyssey took the Sters Krenets of S. Greenbriar to idyllic islands in the Caribbean. Three weeks was scarcely long enough, but allowed them to make port at Martinique, Caracas, Panama and the Virgin Islands.

Kathleen Mogan (the Irish diminutive for Margaret) Carey arrived March 15 to become the fifth child of the Vincent Careys in Dorchester Hills. She was warmly welcomed, though arriving early, by two brothers and two sisters who marvel at the fact that there is a Carey who doesn't have red hair, yet.

3 Franklin Groups Plan Busy April 8

FRANKLIN—April 8 looms as a full blown evening for just about the entire village. Boy scout troop B-11 stands braced for the entire hungry masses who converge upon the Community church 'round supper time for the annual pancake supper.

The Franklin Community association stands prepared to host the many who have looked forward to another square dance, with Dick Lewis calling formations at the Franklin school also that evening.

Still others will be taking part in the treasure hunt planned for members of the couples club by Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter and the James Washburns.

Tickets for the pancake supper may be obtained from any active boy scout in Franklin. Patrons are vying in a sales competition that has already stimulated much interest in an event which precludes family participation.

The square dance is one of a series of fund raising events planned to enhance the building fund drive launched a month ago for the new Community Center. A half hour of instructions will be given between 8 and 8:30 p.m. for those who don't know their alle-mande left from an allemande right.

Troop B-11, man and boy, forged through deep snow drifts last Friday to make camp at the site near Lapeer. Nearly 10 scouts and about seven adult leaders joined in the weekend campout.

News of the new play to be given in June and movies of their recent production, "Please, Don't Drink the Cider" will be program fare for the Franklin Village Play-ers April 9 meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Price on Colony Hill.

There's seldom a dull moment for the Harold Roseberrys of Wellington Home from Wierton, Va., where they welcomed newest grandson, John James Worley III, the Roseberrys are in the throes of planning their second European tour.
