County to Elect 2nd Probate Judge

PONTIAC—Following the state legislator's adoption of a law eliminating the need for a referendum to elect a second probate judge, the board of supervisors Monday called for the second judge's election Nov. 8 for a two-year term.
The number of candidates—including Oakland's Republican Senator L. Harvey Lodge—indicates a probate primary Aug. 2.
Present Oakland county Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore will seek reelection to a four-year term.

THE NEW DISTRICT includes all diocesan parishes in the lower peninsula north of a line between St. Johns and Bay City. The bishop will be selected Friday at a convention at St. John's church, Detroit.
The other two men nominated are the Reverend Charles Braddock, bishop-elect of Massachusetts and the Rev. Allan Ramsey, executive secretary of the diocese of Michigan.
