Vacation in Phoenix

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Paulus of 1111 Gleggery circle, Birmingham, enjoyed a steak-cook-out recently when they vacationed at the Camelback Inn, Phoenix, Ariz. They combined a week of business and pleasure.

Women's Association To Present Organist

At the annual meeting of the Women's association for the Detroit Symphony orchestra, April 26, Mrs. Ralph David, chairman, announced that the association would sponsor an organ recital in Ford auditorium by the celebrated organist, Virgil Fox. The National guild of organists, meeting in convention in Detroit, will co-sponsor the recital.

Mr. Fox has played on virtually every great organ in the world. A native of Princeton, Ill., he won the state and then the national Federation of music club, contest in Boston. He was only 17 at the time.

AS ORGANIST for the Riverside church in New York, he leaves every Sunday evening by plane to appear in other cities; then returns in time for a Friday night choir practice.

In September, 1952, he was elected by the State department to represent the United States at the first International Congress for church music. He then played a concert in the great cathedral in Bern, Switzerland. He appeared with the Detroit symphony in the Juergan Symphony Concertante in January, 1958. A dramatic performer with a master's touch, he is particularly interested in the youth of the nation and is helping to build the musical audiences of the future.

TICKETS FOR the performance are available through the ticket chairman, Maxine Skilton, 1817 Litchfield, Detroit. There are no reserved seats. Miss Skilton suggests that church groups and music schools make arrangements early for seats.

Ex-Stewardesses Slate Conference

Mrs. Richard Benson, president of the Detroit chapter of the Kiwi from the flightless New Zealand club announces that the fourth annual, a humorous reference to the tional convention of the group will be held at Washington, D. C. on marriage. May 24, 25 and 26. Mrs. Benson. Members serve their communities by working with charitable services. The local group pays par-ticipation of former American airlines (dollar attention to muscular dys-tewardesses with 34 chapters in trophy.

ZILLIONS OF BEADS BY Cora

Massed for fashion impact, multiplied for dazzling freshness, the season's new jewelry is a lightweight medley of pearlized seed beads . . . in strands of twenty to forty . . . some ignited by sparkling crystals, some making a brilliant merger with baroque pearls. Change fashion's pace; wear them in new high-rise styles or classic length—their clasps adjust. Try them, filling in or spilling over your necklines. Necklaces, $5.00; Earrings, $1.00 and $2.00

the sophisticated wash and wear clothing

When you think of emoref clothing, naturally you think of Haspel. Hot, humid weather just can't dampen its spirits. It will stay fresh and neat through the muggiest days. And refreshing it is a soap-and-water affair. Into the washing machine. Out to drip dry. Wear it next day. If you wish, touch it up with an iron. THE SIR PERIOR COORD, a fine blend of 75% Dacron (Polyester), 25% Cotton. Grey, Brown, Olive, Navy, Black.
