Nancy Ringland Weds
Carter A. Van Lopik

Nancy Jean Ringland was married Saturday in St. Bede's church to Carter Andrew Van Lopik by the Rev. Cyril Keating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ringland, 18614 Bungalow, Lathrup village and the groom is the son of Mrs. Andrew Van Lopik of Detroit and the late Mr. Van Lopik.

The bride chose a floor length imported silk organza gown with alencon lace motifs on the bodice and lily of the valley sprigs edging the lace at the hem. Her head-dress was of silk organza with a Dior bow and french illusion veil.

Her bouquet was white roses and lily of the valley.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Mrs. Oliver Minnich of Royal Oak, attended the bride and wore white silk organza, finely striped in chartreuse, with a cummerbund of the same color. Her head-dress was also a Dior bow of chartreuse and her flowers were yellow and white.

The bridesmaids' costumes matched that of the matron of honor. They were Mrs. John Greene of Dearborn and Mrs. Richard Bowers of Evanston, Ill.

Thomas Scanlon and Joseph Hartmann of Detroit as well as John Solomon, Grosse Pointe and William Van Lopik, Ogden Dunes, Ind. ushered the wedding.

Judy and Kathy Minnich, nieces of the bride, served as flower girls.

THE BRIDE'S mother selected a costume of ice blue silk linen with matching accessories. Mrs. Van Lopik wore a blue Dior gown and blue accessories. Both mothers wore orchids.

A reception and wedding breakfast at Red Run golf club followed the ceremony. The bride's traveling costume was a navy and grey silk tweed ensemble with navy and white accessories.

The couple will reside in Grosse Pointe.

Delegates Attend
Nat'l Convention

Just back from a week of intensive work in St. Louis are Messdames Evan Hannay, Charles Tanner and Lawrence Nicklin, official delegates of the Birmingham league of women voters to the national convention of the league.

Mrs. Hannay, president of the local league; Mrs. Nicklin, Birmingham membership chairman; and Mrs. Tanner, county council representative, were elected by the Birmingham league board as official representatives.

THE BIRMINGHAM delegates took consensus decisions of their Birmingham members on the subject of legislation on water resources.

Local delegates met with other Michigan delegates before they left, under the leadership of the state president, Mrs. Howard A. Lichterman. A report on the convention will be made at the league's May 16 general meeting at the Birmingham community house.
