Marion Barry Marries
Detroit on Saturday

Marion Elizabeth Barry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Barry of Boca Raton, Fla., was married Saturday to William Keith Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sanders of Detroit. The wedding took place at the Shrine of the Little Flower at 1 p. m. and was performed by Father Louis Rohr.

The bride wore a waltz length ivory chateau lace gown with a bouffant skirt and cap sleeves, an oval neckline and blue taffeta cummerbund waist. Her elbow length veil was attached to an ivory taffeta shell cap embroidered with chautilly lace and seed pearls. She carried white baby roses and stephanotis.

MRS. JAMES Birney Groff, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Her waltz length silk organza gown had a bouffant skirt and cap sleeves. The pleated bodice was trimmed with lace and her shell cap was of organza with a face veil. Her flowers were pale pink carnations and baby roses.

Robert Sanders, brother of the groom, served as best man and the ushers were Don Downham, of Cottesville, N. J. and Roland Bourdieu, of Birmingham. A WALTZ LENGTH beige lace dress and flowered hat of beige and pale green was chosen by the bride.

Detroit Country Day Hosts 'Lauds'

Detroit Country Day school hosted one hundred society members from three other Detroit area schools May 1. The society, known as the Phi Beta Kappa of secondary schools, is composed of high-level students from the junior and senior classes. Seventy-five members from Ligezz's school, Grosse Pointe university school, Cranbrook school, as well as Detroit Country Day school were present.

Parents, school personnel and guests were treated to a discussion of "What to Expect in College," Dean Hooks of MSOU delivered the address and was introduced by Carl Wollenburger, head of the English department at Cranbrook. Proceeding were initiated by E. Alden Shaw, Country Day's headmaster.

Walter Poole presented a violinist and cellist from the Wayne state symphony during intermission. Refreshments were served to the 275 guests following the program.

Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Former Franklin residents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Conner, now residing at Orchard Lake, joined family members at Paw's in Detroit to honor their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Conner, on their golden wedding anniversary recently.

'Wonderful Town's' Next

May 15, 1960, the production of the Broadway hit musical, "Wonderful Town," which starts tonight at the W-Anley auditorium on campus, will feature one of the many talents of Mrs. Des Neiges Manning, 25820 Meadowood, Lathrup Village.

Miss Marjorie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marjorie, has appeared in the devotional discourse "Stabat Mater" through-out the Detroit area recently.

SHE WAS choreographer for "Babes in Toyland," presented by Our Lady of Mercy high school in April.

She sings, dances and "displays a flair for comedy" as the Russian musical, a college spokesman said. She is a freshman.
