

Pattersons Enjoy Trip In Arizona

FOXCRIFT — Taking up horse back riding for the first time recently were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Patterson and their son, Jimmy, 12, of East Surrey. They vacationed for three weeks at Rex Ranch near Tucson, Arizona.

A few 5-day trips included visits to Mexico and Phoenix where they lunched at Camel Back Inn with their neighbors Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDonald.

Nancy West was the guest of honor last Friday at a surprise party given by Margie Van Halteren in honor of Nancy's ninth birthday.

Guests at the C. J. Van Halteren home on Crabtree were Vicki Fuller, Kathy Miner, Karen Szymanski, Kippy Popovich, Ellen Rothwell, Barbara Thorburn and Sandra Ahrens.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mullenix of Lantern lane entertained 40 guests for cocktails Saturday. The group went on to Forest Lake country club to attend the annual Huntington Woods bowling association dinner-dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan German of Worlington are home after spending the winter at Vero Beach, Florida.

Just for fun Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gordon of Worlington went to New York last weekend. They left Thursday for a four day whirl of theaters, night clubs and restaurants.

Returning Sunday after a week in East Florida were Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Weston of Forman drive. In Rochester, N. Y., Dr. Weston attended the National Industrial Medical convention and they visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sanders, former Bloomfield residents.

When Gordon Jaynes started a tune on his clarinet everyone joined in. Mrs. Jaynes wrote a parody on "I Had a Dream, Dear." It was all about the local Gilbert Lake problems of weeds and bugs. Every one sang with the vocal group accompaniment.

Several cocktail parties preceded the dance, and the bus stopped for passengers at each gathering beginning at the Charles H. Armstrong. They had invited 24 for cocktails with the Richard Andersons as joint hosts. Mr. and Mrs. William S. Lavis entertained the couples who are budding husbands and will soon be newsmen. Four couples who are very recent newsmen were the guests of the association at the dance.

With the cocktail parties, the bus ride, the voo doo and the old timers got to know each other better which was the purpose of the whole affair.

Good news awaited Mrs. Armin Vogel of Timberlake road when she arrived home in April from an Arizona vacation. The Vogels were thrilled to hear that their son, Robert, who will graduate in June from Amherst, was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa.

We thing it will warm your heart to hear about the latest project of some local ladies who spend a lot of time doing thoughtful little things for the patients at Pontiac State hospital.

Because a patient was badly in need of dentures, Mrs. Charles Pfister of Quanton road suggested a party at her home in the hope that they might be able to purchase the needed dentures.

Working with Mrs. Pfister were Mrs. George McHugh, Mrs. Harry Ains, Mrs. Estelle Hochman, Mrs. Henry Grikschiet, Mrs. Jake Jackel, Mrs. John Geiss and Mrs. Robert Jacobson. On April 30 people came to play bridge at Mrs. Pfister's home and there was enough money for the dentures and almost enough for a much needed electric typewriter.

Back after a month in Florida at Indian Rocks Beach are Mr. and Mrs. Draxton McClelland of Quanton road. They traveled to Florida via New Orleans where they stopped for three days of sight-seeing.

Returning from Florida recently were Mrs. Charles Bay and her son, Ed of Quanton road. They visited

Bus Load of Voo Doers Get Together at Gilbert

GILBERT LAKE—Oh, that voo doo rhythm! There's just nothing so wondrous—especially on a bus on the way to a dance. Heading for Edgewood country club last Friday evening with a 100-doo band on a chartered bus were some 60 members of Lone Pine improvement association.

The voo doo band was made up of legal residents playing jungle instruments which the Richard Andersons bought on their recent visit to Haiti. Glamour was furnished by Mrs. Donald O'Toole, the only woman in the band. She shook a real mean rhythm on the maracas.

Among the weird instruments were two one-note horns which Anderson calls "barboo gadjets". Weirdest of all the instruments was a voo doo drum played by Charlie Armstrong. Music was most impromptu.

When Gordon Jaynes started a tune on his clarinet everyone joined in. Mrs. Jaynes wrote a parody on "I Had a Dream, Dear." It was all about the local Gilbert Lake problems of weeds and bugs. Every one sang with the vocal group accompaniment.
