Judith Flynn Weds Gerald C. Rennell

Judith Mary Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Flynn of Suffield road, Birmingham, was united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony April 30 to Gerald C. Rennell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Rennell of Holland, Birmingham.

The ceremony took place at Holy Name church with Fr. William Davidson officiating.

The bride chose an embroidered silk organza floor-length gown with a sabrina neckline and a four-tiered skirt. Her veil was a Brussels lace mantilla and she carried a cascade arrangement of white and blue flowers.

MRS. G. C. RENNELL

The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white bow tie.

THE HONOR ATTENDANT was Jessica Prato of Cleveland, who wore a full-skirted powder blue silk organza with embroidered flowers accenting the scoop neckline. Her flowers were purple baby's breath and iris, shading to a lighter blue and her headress was of blue flowers.

Identical zovons were worn by the bridesmaids, Christine Hall of Birmingham; and Donna Heikila of Detroit. Their flowers in lighter shades of blue, were similar to the maid of honor's.

MICHAEL FLYNN, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Donald McCrumb of Birmingham; James Rennell of Kentucky, brother of the groom; and Jeffrey, Life of Albion.

MRS. FLYNN chose a toast colored sheath with beige accessories and coral camellias. The groom's mother wore a printed powder blue printed sheath with white accessories and white camellias.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the Birmingham community house. Two hundred guests were present.

For her traveling costume, the bride selected a beige linen suit with box jacket and brown accessories. The couple will honeymoon in New York city and live in Detroit.

Rovit-Miettunen Vows Read at First Methodist

A double-ring ceremony Saturday evening united Dawn-Elizabeth Rovit to Jack Edward Miettunen at the First Methodist church. The marriage was performed by the Rev. Dr. Harry O. Martin.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Rovit of Rochester, Troy and the groom is the son of Mrs. Jack Miettunen of Southfield, Birmingham.

She chose a floor-length gown of embroidered silk organza with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. The full skirt was accented by a panel of draped satin. Her tiara of seed pearls was attached to a tiered silk veil and she carried a cascade of white roses.

MRS. MIETTUNEN

AN ORCHID GOWN of lace and silk organza over taffeta was worn by the maid of honor, Jacqueline Rovit, sister of the bride. Her flowers were pink carnations.

William Dean was the best man and Arthur Haley of Rochester, Troy was the best man. Arthur Haley of Mount Royal, Pontiac ushered.

The bride's mother selected a green lace dress and matching accessories and the groom's mother wore a pastel blue gown of silk shantung and chiffon. Both wore cypripedium orchids.

A RECEPTION followed the wedding in the church parlors. For the trip to the Smoky mountains, the bride chose a traveling costume of navy blue silk shantung. Mrs. Miettunen and Mrs. Miettunen will make their home in Troy.
