Giles-Sturgess Rites Business, Professional Club Charter Accepted

Joanne Lee Giles became Mrs. F. James Sturgess May 7 at a double ring ceremony at the First Methodist church. Dr. Arpold F. Runkel officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Giles of Drayton Plains; the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Sturgess of Birmingham.

The bride's gown was of white silk organza with inserts of lace, a gracefully rounded neckline, long sleeves and a chapel train. A cap studded with seed pearls caught her finger-tip veil. She carried white roses.

MRS. EDWARD PROKSH of Indiana was the matron of honor; bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward Jacques and Marion Boston. All were dressed in frocks of sea mist green silk organza with matching accessories. They carried baskets of pastel daisies.

Deborah Giles, sister of the bride, was dressed in white organza over sea mist green and carried a small basket of daisies for her role as flower girl.

ON THE ESQUIRE side were David A. Sturgess, brother of the groom who came from navy duty in Bermuda to best man, Earl Laing of Detroit; Jack Bell and Donald Hite of Birmingham.

For the wedding Mrs. Giles chose a toast lace dress with green accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Sturgess wore a dusty rose lace sheath with matching accessories and a violet corsage.

FOLLOWING A church reception, the couple left for a two-week motor trip. They will reside in Pontiac.

B'ham Women Get Honors From Writers'
Two Birmingham women members of the Detroit Women Writers' were presented with parchment scrolls by retiring President Mrs. Arthur H. McWood of Bloomfield Hills at a May 10 luncheon at the Park sheldon hotel in Detroit.

They were Mrs. John A. Cooper of Pilgrim who published her latest "Self-Made Man" in early March. She has written nine books, five of which have been published.

ALSO HONORED was Mrs. Henry G. Gilmartin of Birwood who writes under her maiden name, Andria Iverson, who has sold three short stories in the last nine months. A novel written by her was published in 1945 and won a major Hugobon award.

Mrs. Walter Jackson of Madison, Birmingham took care of flower arrangements.

Mrs. Joseph E. Kutacka and Mrs. Henry J. Gilmartin will be installed as president and vice president respectively on May 17. They are both Birmingham residents.

Clipped Wings Meet May 17

Mrs. William Farrell of Manchester, Birmingham, will host a meeting of the Clipped Wings, United air line stewardesses alumnae at her home on May 17 at 8 and 9 p.m.

Former stewardesses in the area are invited to attend.

THE MEETING will feature an auction to enable the group to send a delegate to the national convention in July at Seattle. A report will be presented on the raffle sale held March 19 in Ypsilanti.

Proceeds will be used to benefit the club's national charity project, the National Association of Retarded Children.

tea Sunday afternoon.

Founders' day observance will begin with a rededication service at Christ Church Cranbrook in the morning. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth will host a tea at the end of the day and will be assisted at the tea tables by Mesdames Thomas H. Hewlett, Arthur E. Moore, Charles Hummel, as well as Mesdames Ernest A. Jones, W. Calvin Patterson and Roxco Di Marco.

Other hostesses will be Mesdames Peter Kerr, John S. Judd, Hubert H. Reichers and Clifford B. West. Mrs. Lawrence Hafstead and Mrs. James H. Garlick, Jr., will also assist.

Party, Party—Two of Them at DAC

Stars twinkled realistically over the deck of a cruise ship—to be exact, over the Detroit Athletic Club's entire swimming pool—while the club's Beavers enjoyed their Caribbean cruise cocktail party last Friday.

Before joining the party, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Rollins, Jr., of Madison Heights entertained the Judge Beardons, the William A. Prews, the Richard Osborns and the George Webbs. Others in their party were the Jervis Webbs, the Clarence Pinkstons, the Sumner Gurneys, the Richard Campbells and the Jack W. Hoopers.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Bevis, Mr. and Mrs. A. Frye Ayers and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ayers were together as were the Nelson Mulligans and the Harvey Ewalds. Phyllis Mitchum was escorted by Jack Hanamy; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher III and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred D. MacDonnells were on board also.

TUESDAY OF THIS week, the D.A.C. was on stage with a theater party. At last count, 750 had dinner at the club and went on to the opening performance of the "Flower Drum Song" at the Riviera theater.

Present were D.A.C. president Lester L. Colbert and Mrs. Colbert; the Dean Coffins; the Bernard Costellos, Jr., in a foursome with the Thomas Brennans; the Raymond A. Cragins and Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Fredericks. Others there were the John Flannerys, the John Dykstras, the Kirk Horigans and the Lee Keatings.

Also on the scene were the Percy K. Lounds, the William S. McNarys, the Fred H. Rollins, Jr., the Asa Sherwoods, as well as the Jack Splitstones, the Henry L. Wolfendens, the Jervis Webbs and the Thomas C. Yarnalls.

Mayor Florence Willett accepted the charter from national membership chairman, Mrs. Virginia Allen, at the charter dinner of the Business and Professional Women's club of Birmingham last Friday evening at Devon Gables.

Seventeen charter members and 125 guests watched as the new organization was installed by Mrs. Queenie Orr Campbell, chairman of the organization 10 district of the organization of Kirkshire, president; Mrs.

Hart Schaffner & Marx
CHICAGO NEW YORK

a suit with a 45 square foot
label?

Incredible? That's the average amount of fabric in a man's suit. When the fabric's the finest, the styling's paced to the present, the tailoring's the perfection of 72 years' experience—then every inch of those 45 square feet says "Hart Schaffner & Marx." More important is what your HS&M suit says about you—your good taste, your sense of value, your air of confidence. Priceless? Yes. Costly? No.
