Receive Papal Blessing At Holy Name Ceremony

Joan Eleanor Duncan became the bride of Robert Joseph Kurtz Saturday at Holy Name church in Birmingham in a double-ring ceremony performed by Father William Davidson. She was given in marriage by her father, A Papal blessing was bestowed on the marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mason Duncan of Oakhill drive, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Charles Kurtz of Archdale street in Detroit.

The bride wore a ballerina length white lace gown with a sabiner neckline and long sleeves. Her fingertip veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and rhinstones and she carried white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

KATHRYN HOWELL of West-lady, Birmingham, the maid of honor, wore a pale blue silk or-ganga gown with a white lace bodice and sabiner neckline with matching shoes. Her hairpiece was a band of blue corn flowers with a short veil. She carried a basket of roses, daffodils and bac-elor buttons carrying out a theme of yellow, pale blue and white.

Sally Durean, sister of the bride and Janet Kurtz, sister of the groom, wore the bridesmaids. They were gowned in yellow in the same style as the maid of honor and carried baskets of white bachelor buttons with yellow roses and daffodils.

THE BEST MAN was Thomas McMaster of Bellevue trail, Bir-mingham and ushers were Thomas Kroth of Archdale, Detroit and Thomas Martinek of Martha Wash-ington, Southfield.

A champagne lace sheath with matching accessories was worn by the bride's mother. Mrs. Kurtz wore a blue lace sheath and match-ing leather accessories. Both wore white sylvianium orchids.

A BUFFET luncheon was served at Sylvan Glen Inn, Troy following the ceremony.

Following the reception, the couple left for northern Michigan. The bride chose for her traveling costume a powder blue sheath with matching hat, black patent leather accessories and white gloves.

The couple will make their home in Detroit.
