

MAPLE MATTERS

By ROBIN ODLE

This year for the second time Seaholm is having a summer school course to help students make up credits, strengthen weak areas, and take extra subjects that otherwise crowded schedules wouldn't permit.

Classes begin June 20, and run through August 12, but so far because of a poor turnout, only 15 subjects are scheduled and some classes originally scheduled may be cancelled.

Time's Growing Short, and Busy, For 8th Graders

By JUDY GOODE
Graduation for eighth graders at Holy Name is drawing nearer with its flurry of preparations. The most unenjoyable of these will be our examinations near the end of this month. They will include everything we have learned.

May 22 will bring the eighth graders to a May breakfast at Greenfield's restaurant. June 3 will end the school year for us. The rest of the school will get out on June 10.

June 5 is the biggest and best day — Graduation Sunday. Elementary school will be left behind and high school life ahead.

Although all the future graduates are looking forward to these happy occasions we feel that there will be a touch of sadness in them all.

The boys' baseball team at Holy Name is making the whole school proud.

Our team has won all of its games thus far in the season. Although there are no awards for baseball at Holy Name, the number of participants is very encouraging.

We are glad for our victorious team but hope that they don't end up like the Detroit Tigers did.

Bfield Hills JHS Add One to the Signs Of Spring: Back-Patting

Congratulations, along with the flowers, seem to accompany spring at B.H.J.H.S. The ten applicants for junior varsity cheerleaders competed at the senior high for the final decision. Although the judges had a tough time, the six girls chosen were most satisfactory.

The peppy winners were Joan Gray, Pam Waggoner, Cindy Barry, Ginny Van Dyk, Sue Reaveley and Sue Domzal.

Five were cheerleaders previously. Joan Gray was the new addition. Some muscles don't seem to plague these girls. Congratulations.

As a result of the annual Vocal Music festival, both our choruses were awarded a first division rating these girls. Congratulations.

Our ninth-grade mixed chorus was chosen from fourteen others to compete further. We performed May 20. The Lola Valley mixed chorus was chosen also. Everyone who participated deserves credit.

Without the teaching and supervision of Mrs. Hand M. Plummer, we could hardly have given such an excellent performance. Congratulations!

Another "congratulations" goes to...

Frederick A. Teagues Honeymoon in Nassau

Carolyn Mae Golin became the bride of Frederick Ashton Teague of Chicago, the evening of May 6 in a candlelight ceremony at our Shepherd Lutheran church of Birmingham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto F. Golin of Lenox road, Birmingham; the groom's parents are Col. and Mrs. E. P. Teague of Detroit.

For her wedding, the bride chose a white tulle taffeta gown with a portrait neckline and long sleeves. The bodice and front panel of the full skirt were detailed with tulle and embroidered alençon lace and pearls and the skirt formed a chapel train.

Her finger tip veil of illusion tulle was fastened to a cap of matching alençon lace. She carried a cascade of staphanotis and ivy centered with white orchids.

HONOR ATTENDANT was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Golin of Blissfield, Mich. Her groomsmen of lavender silk organza wore taffeta and she carried a basket of yellow and white flowers in a cascade arrangement. Her handmaid was a matching flower girl.

Retiring directors were honored including Mrs. Howard Christie and Mrs. Palmer E. Sutton, also Birmingham residents.

MRS. F. A. TEAGUE
