

International League Divides Membership Into 3 Area Groups

The April meeting of the Oakland county branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, which was held last week at the home of Mrs. A. D. McRay of Birmingham, was an historic one for the group.

As a result of more than a 50 percent increase in membership this season, the League, which was organized on a county basis for some thirty years, voted to break up into three separate groups—one in Oak Park, one in Birmingham, and one in Pontiac. Mrs. John C. Houston of Glenwood avenue, Pontiac, will serve as county coordinator and each city will function under its own executive board. Official elections are scheduled this month.

Mary Jean Harris Weds Alan Worthley

In a double-ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian church Saturday evening, Mary Jean Harris was united in marriage to Alan Kent Worthley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin J. Harris of Villa road, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leland N. Worthley of Eastlady drive, Birmingham. Dr. Glen Harris officiated.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and tulle with an illusion neckline. Hand cut scallops finished the front of the lace overlay on the skirt. Her finger-tip veil was attached to a crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

MRS. A. K. WORTHLEY

Mrs. Elwin Harris of Clawson, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. Her ballet-length gown was rachel lace over pink tulle with a tulle cummerbund and she carried pink mums.

THE BRIDESMAIDS, Mrs. Ray Worthley, sister-in-law of the groom and Bonnie Fisher of Wetzel, Birmingham were dressed in costumes that matched the matron of honor's. They carried pink and white mums and wore white hats.

Carson James of Arlington, Birmingham was the best man. Fishers were Ray Worthley, brother of the groom, and Elwin Harris of Clawson, brother of the bride.

THE BRIDE'S mother chose a powder blue eyelid silk sheath with matching accessories and wore red shoes. Mrs. Worthley was gowned in an olive green sheath with mauve accessories. Her flowers were yellow roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given at the Birmingham community house.

The couple are honeymooning in the Smoky mountains. For the trip, the bride wore an olive green sheath with beige accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthley will make their home in Royal Oak.

Mrs. T. O. Yntema Torch Drive Gift Co-Chairman

Earl G. Ward, 1960 Torch Drive general chairman, today announced the appointment of Mrs. Theodore O. Yntema, 2950 Franklin road, Bloomfield Hills, and the respondent, Allen Sheldon III, Grosse Pointe, as joint co-chairmen for advance gifts.

Mrs. Yntema and Sheldon will head a committee responsible for soliciting large contributors, other than the corporations. Members of this group will carry the Torch Drive appeal to retired wealth and major donors requiring special handling. Advance gifts solicitation is done prior to the actual campaign, which has been set for Oct. 18 through Nov. 10 of this year.

Mrs. Yntema, wife of a Ford emp.

Fly to New York

Mrs. A. D. Sheldon, of Ann street, Birmingham, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Fox of Eau Claire, Wis., flew to New York recently for three top shows, dinner at Sardi's and shopping over the week.
