

Communities Ready Annual Mayor Exchange

Birmingham area cities and villages will roll out the welcome mat Monday for visiting mayors, as Michigan Week begins.

Mayor Emerson Foor of Reading will exchange with Village President Marvin Cline of Beverly Hills. Lathrup will host Grosse Pointe Woods' Mayor Kenneth Koppin, while Mayor Richard N. Cogger visits the Pointe community.

Franklin's Village President Calvert Thomas trades with Union City Mayor Harry MacDonald for the day, while Wood Creek Farm entertains Goodrich Mayor Sennet West and its Village President Alger Clark returns the call.

MAYOR and Mrs. Foor will have a packed schedule from the time they are greeted at 11 a.m. in Beverly Hills by exchange day Chairman Chester F. Gullmet. The Foor's will be accompanied by Reading School official John Owens and his wife.

Grosse junior high school Principal Kenneth Nagley will be host to the visitors, the press and village officials at a luncheon preceding a tour of the school.

Mrs. Douglas A. Wood, whose councilman husband is an exchange committee member, will accompany Councilman Ted Shurtleff, who will honor Mrs. Foor and Mrs. Owens during a tour of his home on Marimoor drive from 2 to 4 a.m.

AT THE same time their husbands will tour the village, visit Cranbrook and meet with Donald C. Eperst at the Southeastern Oakland county water authority in Royal Oak.

The visitors, village officials and their wives will gather at the Gullmet's home of Riverside drive before going on to a dinner party that night.

Councilswoman Elizabeth Mitchell will be Lathrup's Michigan week chairman and hostess. The visiting Pointe mayor will be a guest at a luncheon at Michigan State university, Oakland. Representatives of eight South Oakland cities and their guests will attend.

COUNCILMAN Don Hunter and his wife, along with Village Clerk Elsie Garwood, will escort Mayor and Mrs. MacDonald and their 15-year-old daughter around Franklin. After luncheon at the Hunter's Whip, the visitors will be taken to Cranbrook Institute of Science. There they will meet Wood
