Jacqueline Ruth Irvine Weds James Vernor III

Christ church, Cranbrook was the scene Saturday afternoon of the wedding of Jacqueline Ruth Irvine to James Vernor, III. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Irvine of Worlington, Birmingham, and the groom is the son of Mr. John R. Doolittle of Kendry, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride chose a nylon organza gown with embroidered panels and a finger-tip veil was attached to orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, lily of the valley and stephanotis.

MRS. DONALD H. Vachon of Waterford, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and wore an aqua silk organza dress. Her flowers were rose elf roses in a cascade arrangement.

The bridesmaids were Shannon Vernor of Bloomfield Hills, Mary Lou Maloney of Detroit and Judith Rowland of Birmingham.

Their gowns matched that of the matron of honor as did the costume worn by the junior bridesmaid, Marlene Curtis of Dearborn, niece of the bride.

DEBRA and Diane Vachon of Waterford and Michele and Lisa Doolittle of Bloomfield Hills were the flower girls. They wore white nylon dresses over aqua slips, and carried cascade bouquets of aqua daisies.

The best man was Judge William Beer of Pontiac. Ushers were William Irvine of Birmingham, Clare Bird of Clarkston, Geoffrey Kaercher of Birmingham and Robert Rowland of Clawson. Officers were John Ortman of Lapeer, and Donald Vachon, Jr. of Waterford. The ring bearer was Donald Vachon, Jr., of Waterford.

A RECEPTION followed the ceremony, in the church parlors. For her honeymoon, the bride

MRS. JAMES VERNOR III chose a royal blue silk suit and small white hat. She wore white orchids.

The couple will reside in Beverly Hills following a wedding trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Nassau.
