

I know a young man, son of a Birmingham family, who never comes into his parents' home without scolding out and kissing his Mother. When he leaves, the kiss is duplicated... without failing. This young man, married and with a family of his own, is both a boy and an inspiration to all who know him. This affectionate habit he learned from childhood up... and he'll never lose it... it's a mighty loving habit.

SOCIETY Bonnie Fisher Becomes Mrs. R. W. Chamberlain

Bonnie Jo Fisher became the bride of Robert Winton Chamberlain at an afternoon ceremony Saturday at the First Methodist church of Warren. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Paul Fisher of Wetherly street, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Winton L. Chamberlain of Grandville avenue, Detroit.

MRS. R. W. CHAMBERLAIN

The bride wore a rose patterned white lace bodice-jacket with cap sleeves and a round neckline over a powder-blue full-skirted silk street length dress. Her sequin head piece was attached to a short veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias.

HER MATRON-OF-HONOR, Mrs. James R. Hatch of Muncie, Ind., wore a pink taffeta street length dress and a pink nylon hat. Her flowers were pink and white carnations.

The groom's brother, Donald R. Chamberlain was best man, Eshers was Donald G. Lundin of Madison Heights and Robert J. Chapman of Detroit.

THE BRIDES MOTHER chose a rose lace sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Chamberlain wore a navy blue flared dress with white accessories and both mothers' flowers were a gardenia, surrounded by tinted rose buds to match their costumes.

Following a reception at the church after the wedding ceremony, the couple left for a two-week honeymoon in Florida. They will live in Warren.
