FRANKLIN—Young "alums" will be returning to an "old alma mater" Franklin day camp, Saturday when special reunion festivities begin at 10 a.m. at Franklin school playground.

Nicholas Rosello and Mrs. Robert Small, registration chairman, is planning the day's events. In announcing the camp's six-week program, Mrs. Mary Pasch said plans had been made for a strong art program and for organizing the traditional carnival which concludes the camp. During the six-week session, older campers will construct two elaborate floats to be unveiled at the carnival, she said, they will be the camp's addition to Franklin's annual barbecue day parade.

Weekly events during the camp session, to which parents are invited each Friday morning, include a parade of nations, a treasure hunt, relays and an art show, a little theater program and a kazoo concert.

The committee expects this year's enrollment at a record 130. Ted Ketter, chairman, estimated.

The camp is co-sponsored by Franklin Community association and the Birmingham board of education.

Assisting her in signing up elementary age youngsters will be Mrs. Dale Carse, Mrs. Fred J. Spittle, registration chairman, is planning the day's events.

Franklin to Honor Retiring Teacher

FRANKLIN—After teaching 14 years at Franklin school, Mrs. Lillian Gavie has announced that she will retire.

The faculty of the Franklin school will honor her at a tea May 28 from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the multi-purpose room. Parents, students, both past and present, and friends and neighbors are invited to attend.

Starting her career as a home-making teacher, Mrs. Gavie taught the third grade, since she joined the faculty after her husband's death. Her strong interests in health study and food, Mrs. Gavie was able to include many important points in daily units.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith of Tudor lane returned Saturday from a Mexican vacation. While her husband was attending the Pan-American Health conference in Mexico City, Mrs. Smith had a wonderful time visiting relatives who live there. They also found time to see Acapulco and Tasco.

Franklin Village Players will be casting ballots for two new three-year board members Friday night when they meet at the Don Olds home on Adair court. An all-girl cast is slated for the election. They are Mrs. Ruth Probst, Mrs. Margaret Thomas, Mrs. Eudice Van Dyke and Mrs. Harlow Jakes.

After watching the calendar closely and pinpointing the week when the Hays, Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Thomas of Franklin road decided Sunday was the time to have a party. Blessed with unbelievably cooperative weather, the Thomases hosted the season's big garden party, and scores of friends took advantage of the fragrant setting.

No matter where they go, the Jones Gillens of Wellington road have a good time. Their latest trip lasted six weeks and included a cruise in the South Pacific with Hawaii and satellite islands on the itinerary.

Returning a week ago, they found enchantment that surpasses anything they've ever experienced on their world travels. They were in the vicinity of Kilauea, the volcano that destroyed a village and erased its memory way to the west.

There will be an election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Shirley Tischler has been nominated as recording secretary. Mrs. Jane Dox as corresponding secretary and Harold Shattuck as treasurer. Nominations for the president and vice-president post will be announced later.
