The 12-acre plot includes a junior high school and later a high school and all purpose auditorium. The 12-acre plot includes a swimming pool and hilly play area and is not unlike the charming home they live in just outside of Franklin.

IT'S BEEN a long trek for these two. Working side by side they've shared a common dream. They've dodged the arrows of traditionalists in their adopted country. It isn't easy to run a school that fosters free expression, creativity and individual intellectual achievement. But, even the most sceptical will have to agree that any child who is exposed to the gentle sincerity that characterizes both Annemarie and George, is a child who will learn a great deal about human rights and values.

Cub Scouts Jr. Olympics Tomorrow

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Cub Scouts in pack B-16 will take their families to the Bloomfield Village school grounds tomorrow night for a family picnic and junior olympics. Last Saturday the boys and their fathers attended the Tiger ball game in Detroit.

Because so many of the boys in pack B-16 play baseball at the Quanton school they have used the money they earned selling Christmas wreaths to purchase bleachers for the Quanton school ball field.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lape of Bradway boulevard gave a dinner party Saturday for Mrs. Don Kreitsch of Rolling Hills, Calif. Mrs. Kreitsch has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Ryan, Sr. of Detroit.

Dinner guests were Mrs. Robert Ryan, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ryan, Jr., Miss Patricia Ryan, Mr.

To Rec Board

SOUTHFIELD—Southfield council last week approved appointment of John R. Miller to the recreation board. Miller is assistant sports editor of the Detroit Times.

Two previous efforts of Mayor Donald L. Swanson to appoint Mrs. Lawrence J. Brown, Jr., to the position were turned down by the council. They claimed "a man should replace a man", referring to former board member Al Wargo, who moved from the city.

and Mrs. James Page, Mrs. Ruth Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Amberg, Henry Eldert and Dr. and Mrs. Jay Kasper.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Mayhew of North Williamsburg gave a pre-graduation theater party Friday evening for their son, Boyd, who will be a June graduate from Seaborn high. Following dinner at the H.A.C., the group went on to the Riviera to see "Flower Drum Song."

Nancy Rice Honored At Bridal Showers

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—The first of a round of showers for June bride-elect, Nancy Caryl Rice, was given Mother's Day by Nancy's maternal grandmother, Mrs. William O. Merrill, at her home at Willow Way.

Mrs. Weston has been president of the Auxiliary for the past year. Guests spent the afternoon making tea aprons for the bride.

Nancy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carl H. Rice of Telegraph road is to be married to Burton Charles Erickson, Jr., on June 17 at Kirk-in-the-Hills.

A luncheon and linen shower will be given by Mrs. James Rogers on May 21 at her Whipple Lake home in Clarkston.

The following day Mrs. Barry Parsons and Mrs. George Doras will give a tea and around-the-clock shower for Nancy. Guests at this shower will be Nancy's Phi Mu sorority sisters.

Mrs. William Way Merrill and her daughter, Marce, have planned a cabinet and closet shower for May 28.

The groom's aunt, Mrs. Charles Romig and his cousin, Mrs. David Romig will give a shower on June 4.

Mrs. Homer Harrison, the bride's sister, will give the spinster dinner on June 11 at her home in Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton C. Erickson of Birmingham, parents of the groom, will give the rehearsal dinner on June 16 at Forest Lake country club.

Nancy's sister, Mrs. Homer Harrison, will be the matron-of-honor. Bridesmaids are Julie Erickson, sister of the groom, Mrs. Douglas Drury, Patricia Gay Bell and Marjorie Merrill, all cousins of the bride. Mrs. Barry Parsons, Irene Schiele and Mrs. George Dovas.

Arthur Erickson, brother of the groom, will be best man. The ushers will be Homer Harrison, George Dovas, David Romig, and James Romig, cousins of the groom. Kenneth McCullough, Alan Brown and the groom's uncle, Dr. Myron Farde.

WING LAKE—Mrs. Earl F. Weston of Furman drive has invited some 40 board members of the woman's auxiliary to the Wayne County Medical Society for punch, lunch and bridge this afternoon.

To Study Need For City 'Heliport'

SOUTHFIELD—In a letter to the city council, Southfield's Mayor Donald L. Swanson asked the group to study the need for a heliport within the city limits.

"While we are still relatively undeveloped," Swanson said, "a study of possible locations should be undertaken."

SWANSON CITED travel to and from airports serving the metropolitan area. Swanson said that his new home on Sandy Lane, Mrs. Olson introduced Mrs. Blennman to her new Foxcroft neighbors.

CHELMSFORD—Traveling to New York for five days of fun recently were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bachman, Jr., of Oakleigh. Mrs. Bachman left early this month with Mrs. Sydney Smith to attend the Junior League annual conference at Lake Placid.

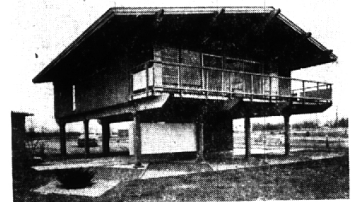

Mrs. Bachman went on to New York where she met her husband and her mother and father. Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Weyand of St. Paul Minn. Former Detroit resident, the Weyands will be moving to San Francisco following a trip to Europe.

He stated that such a landing area could be built in an area as small as 100x100 feet but that it needs approach areas away from schools and residential locations.
