

Westchester Gardeners To Host Smorgasbord

WESTCHESTER—Members of the Westchester garden club and several artists who are members of the art group of the Westchester woman's club will join forces to produce an unusual exhibit for those who will gather May 23 at the home of Mrs. Earle Heft, 501 Route drive, for their annual meeting and smorgasbord dinner.

Garden club members will arrange flowers to interpret paintings done by the artists.

Mrs. Heft and Mrs. Boris Osojnak are in charge of the display. Residents of Westchester will be welcome to view the display during a 1 to 3 p.m. open house at 5:30 p.m. garden club members will enjoy a smorgasbord dinner with Mrs. Robert Vesey, Mrs. C. Robert Carson and Mrs. Ludolf Thun in charge.

Mrs. George Fulkerson, club program chairman, will present Mrs. W. J. Luenbrach, president of the Michigan division of the W.N.P.G.A. and Mrs. W. McCallum, national extension chairman will meet.

BERKSHIRES—Mr. and Mrs. James Harrington, Jr., have returned to their home on Old Mill road from a sun filled week at Miami Beach.

The vacation was especially enjoyable because it was an all-expense paid trip won by Harrington whose purchase of a new station wagon made him eligible for the grand prize of a Florida vacation offered by a Detroit car dealer in a new car sales contest.

WESTCHESTER—Mrs. John Polunsky of Midlebury has entertained the Duke of Kent chapter D.B.E. from Denbora.

Mrs. W. S. Clouston, the state president, attended as did Mrs. Atlee McSells, past president from Grand Rapids. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

FRANKLIN WOODS—Steve DeBorow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold DeBorow, of Indianwood Trail, flew to Indianapolis last week end to see the time trials of the Indianapolis Speedway races. He was accompanied by Ralph Hessler.

FRANKLIN WOODS—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Pogue of Indianwood Trail were hosts for the "first course" of a traveling dinner sponsored May 13 by the Franklin Woods club.

Kiwani's Honors Durbin for Service To His Community

SOUTHFIELD—The Kiwanis international distinguished service award for "outstanding service to his community" was awarded recently to Southfield councilman Clarence A. Durbin. The presentation was made by the Strathmore Kiwanis, in the Detroit area where Durbin formerly had his office and maintained his Kiwanis membership.

Southfield resident for 12 years, Durbin won the award for his efforts in behalf of the Southfield Upper teen club.

Garden Club Says it with Flowers

WESTCHESTER—They'll theme W.N.P.G.A. branch's annual meeting and smorgasbord dinner at the Heft home at 5:30 p.m. Special flowers and pictures combined.

Members of the Westchester branch W.N.P.G.A. are planning the open house from 1 to 3 p.m. Monday, May 23, at the home of Mrs. Earle Heft, 501 Route drive.

The pictures whose color and interpretation is being carried out by the floral arrangers were painted by members of the Westchester art group.

THE OPEN house precedes the floral arrangements to interpret the pictures.

Nancy Whitson To Present Ballet Pupils

CRANBROOK MAPLE—Nancy Sue Whitson of S. Williamsbury road will present her ballet pupils in a dance recital tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at the Birmingham community house.

Children from the area who will participate are Diane Nephach and Cassandra Clemmons of S. Williamsbury road, Mary Ann Lewis and Suzanne and Lisa Ramsey of S. Cranbrook, Cree road and Barbara Harrison of S. Cranbrook road.

Nancy Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitson.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wozelak of S. Williamsbury road attended the Crescent Yacht Club Commodore's ball held recently at the Whittier hotel.

Mrs. C. R. Vic told of Arlington Heights, Ill. was a recent visitor to Mrs. Green and H. C. Starkey, directors. Richard W. Eddy was re-elected vice president.

Dancing Past Dinners

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Dinner was over and the dancing had started when the photographer caught Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Knudsen dancing past the table of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Nelsen. The event was the Cranbrook-Maple association's recent annual dinner dance, held at Birmingham country club. Nelsen was dance chairman and Knudsen assisted with arrangements.

Other officers elected were Edward J. Honestock, vice president; Nabola W. Becker, treasurer; and William Ellison, Carl W. Bell, Arthur Greer and H. C. Starkey, directors. Richard W. Eddy was re-elected vice president.
